The Bluejays ended last season on a five-game winning streak while capturing the first national postseason tournament title by any athletic program in school history. After winning the 2004 WNIT and winning 24 games for three consecutive seasons, the Creighton women's basketball program expects to extend its most successful span of play in school history this season.

Guiding the Bluejays as contenders on the national level is a record-setting coach who has made his mark on the league and nation in his first two seasons at the helm. On the court, the Jays will turn to one of the best all-around players in school and league history to keep the winning tradition going.

Head Coach Jim Flanery has led the Bluejays to two 24-win seasons to begin his career, equalling the best two-year start by a coach in Missouri Valley Conference history. His record in national postseason tournaments is 8-1 and with 11 players back from last season's WNIT Championship team, Flanery expects the Jays will continue to excel.

Leading one of Creighton's best three-year spans has been senior Laura Spanheimer. The starting point guard since she stepped on campus, the Omaha native has directed the Bluejays to the postseason every year since her arrival. The two-time MVC Defensive Player of the Year has proven to be one of the elite defenders in the MVC over the previous three seasons. Her 270 career steals entering her senior campaign have her on pace to shatter the school career steals record, while she also ranks among the all-time Bluejay greats in blocked shots.

Spanheimer not only frustrates opponents on the defensive end, she is one of 16 players in school history to score 1,000 career points. She already ranks third in school history in three-point field goals and has ranked among the NCAA's best in three-point accuracy during her career.

Kristi Woodard earned the starting nod in 17 games last year and showed flashes of greatness while an injury sidelined two-time MVC Player of the Year Christy Neneman. The junior was one of five Jays to have a scoring average in double figures during conference play, including a stretch of three consecutive 20-point contests. Her shooting accuracy helped her set a school record for free-throw percentage last year and she ranks in the top-10 in CU career three-point field goal percentage.

Senior Codi Walker is expected to once again be a force in the Bluejay backcourt. Walker's ability to slash through the lane and create shots make her an offensive threat from anywhere on the floor. Last year she struggled to find her shooting touch, but has proven to be an outside threat throughout her career.

Four returning players, including Sarah Vrbicky coming back from a redshirt season, will provide CU with plenty of depth at the guard position. Vrbicky, one of the strongest defenders on the team, missed all of last season with an ankle injury. Junior Brandy Bush as well as sophomores Deanna Castro and Lucy Lapito will once again push the starters to become better while challenging for minutes in the backcourt.

Freshmen Tyrai Bronson and Ally Thrall will also attempt to fit into Flanery's rotation in a crowded guard corps. Both newcomers come to CU from highly successful high school programs. Bronson's prep teams won back-to-back state championships, while Thrall guided her team to the state title game as a senior. Bronson is regarded as a true point guard, while Thrall is recognized as a tough competitor who can both shoot and run the point.

The Bluejays return three players who worked their way into the starting lineup in the frontcourt last season. The trio of juniors – Angie Janis, Amy Hoffman and Christy Erickson – bring offense, defense and play-making abilities to the hardwood.

Janis led the Bluejays in rebounding last year, while adding 10.5 points per game. The Omaha native has the ability to hit the outside shot and has worked on her post moves during the off season. Janis, who tied a school record with a perfect 10-for-10 shooting game last year, is expected to have a breakout year as her complete game comes together.

Hoffman blocked 36 shots last year to lead the Bluejays. Her defensive presence in the paint has proved disruptive to opponents in her first two seasons. The Bluejays will look to the 6-foot-2 center to provide more offense as a junior this year.

Senior Laura Spanheimer has twice been named the MVC Defensive Player of the Year and is one of 16 players in school history with 1,000 points.

Erickson dished an impressive 11 assists in one game last year, giving the Bluejays a ball-handler at the high post position throughout the season. The junior's court vision helped her rank fourth on the team in assists last year. She earned a spot in the starting lineup during CU's postseason run a year ago and displayed her ability to shoot from the outside. Erickson drained at least one three pointer in each of the Jays' WNIT victories.

Senior Jen Rochelle and freshman Sara Cain round out the frontcourt for the Jays. Rochelle has seen limited minutes in her career, but when on the court she looks to get to the basket and make things happen. Cain has demonstrated athleticism which will allow her to play both in the paint and away from the hoop in her rookie season.

Creighton's schedule once again features one of the top non-conference slates in the nation. The Bluejays will face five teams which played in the NCAA Tournament and three which participated in the postseason WNIT last year. Highlighting CU's non-conference schedule is a visit from 2004 Final Four participant Minnesota on Nov. 28. The Jays also travel to play at defending Conference USA champion Houston in November. Iowa (Dec. 10), Nebraska (Dec. 18) and Kansas (Dec. 21) all visit the Omaha Civic Auditorium. Two CU Valley games will be televised; at Drake on Feb. 13 and against Southwest Missouri State on Feb. 20. The 2005 State Farm MVC Tournament will be held in Normal, Ill. for the first time since the MVC and Gateway Conference merger.

Junior Angie Janis led the Bluejays in rebounding last year and added 10.5 points per game.

The beginning of Jim Flanery's head coaching career has brought unprecedented success to the Creighton women's basketball program and is unmatched by his Bluejay and league predecessors. In two seasons at the helm of the Bluejays, Flanery has advanced his teams to a post-season WNIT championship, two WNIT Final Four appearances and a Missouri Valley Conference regular-season championship, while becoming the winningest rookie coach in school and league history. His 48 wins in his first two seasons has never been topped in MVC history.

The Bluejays have made a national postseason appearance in both of Flanery's years as head coach, moving CU's streak of postseason appearances to three consecutive years – a school record. The Jays have also recorded 24 wins for three consecutive seasons, becoming the first team in league history to accomplish that feat. The 72 wins over a three-year span tie a school record. CU has also set a school three-point field goal record in three consecutive seasons.

Flanery and the Bluejays concluded the 2003-04 season by claiming the first national postseason tournament title in school history, capturing the WNIT Championship. Their 5-0 run through the postseason was capped by a 73-52 rout of UNLV at the Omaha Civic Auditorium. CU arrived at the championship by clinching two road victories, topping two Pac-10 teams and cruising through three home games. The Jays became the first team from the MVC to win the WNIT. Flanery's team set a WNIT record by making 44 three-point field goals, while also shooting an impressive 89.9 percent (71-for-79) from the free-throw line.

Creighton has proved to be a national power under Flanery's guidance, ranking among the NCAA elite over the last two seasons. The Jays received votes in the final USA Today/ESPN poll last year, along with ranking third in the NCAA in three-point field goals made per game, 11th in fewest turnovers per game and 29th in steals per game. In Flanery's first season, CU ranked among the top-30 in the nation in three-pointers per game, steals per game, fewest turnovers per game and points per game.

Flanery's engaging personality and exciting coaching style have made the Bluejays increasingly visible in the community. The Jays have recorded an impressive 25-2 record at home and made the Omaha Civic Auditorium their permanent residence since Flanery took over the program. Fans have responded to the success and set single-game and average attendance records in the past two campaigns. The top two home crowds and six of the top-10 crowds in school history have come during Flanery's reign, while fans set an average home attendance record in 2002-03.

He became the winningest rookie coach in CU and Valley history in 2002-03, as he guided his Bluejays to their second consecutive MVC regular-season title and a WNIT semifinal appearance. After serving as the Bluejays' top assistant coach for the previous decade, Flanery tallied a 24-9 overall record in his first season at the helm, 13-5 in the Valley.

His 24 wins surpassed his predecessor, Connie Yori, for the most successful rookie coaching campaign in school history. His win total also made him the most successful first-year coach in conference history, topping Lisa Stone's 23 wins at Drake in 2000-01. He would then tie Stone, following the 2003-04 season for the best two-year start in league history, with 48 victories. His 13 conference wins in 2002-03 were the most by a first-year CU coach.

Flanery's first season ended with a flurry, as the Jays won three games on the road in the WNIT. The Jays traveled to the Northeast, where they defeated Maine and Siena. Returning to the midwest, the Jays defeated Big Ten foe, Iowa, for the second time in 2002-03. CU then returned home to host Auburn in a WNIT Final Four game in front of a school record 4,439 fans.

Individuals have excelled under Flanery's mentoring, as Laura Spanheimer has earned MVC Defensive Player of the Year honors in both 2002-03 and 2003-04. Spanheimer also has twice earned WNIT All-Tournament recognition. Christy Neneman was tabbed the 2004 WNIT Most Valuable Player and the 2003 MVC Player of the Year. Dayna Finch was also a member of the 2004 WNIT All-Tournament team.

Flanery is no stranger to Creighton basketball, heading into his 13th consecutive season with the Bluejay women's basketball program. A 1987 Creighton graduate with a bachelor of arts degree in philosophy, he was also a member of the Bluejay men's basketball team from 1985 to 1987.

Head Coach Jim Flanery

Flanery was handed the reins to his first head coaching position on July 19, 2002, four weeks after Yori's resignation. He is the sixth head coach in women's hoops history at Creighton, and just the third since 1980. He succeeded long-time coaching partner, Yori, who he had been on staff with since his graduate assistant days at CU in the late 1980s.

Following graduation, Flanery joined current Director of Athletics Bruce Rasmussen's Bluejay coaching staff as a graduate assistant for the 1987-88 season. He remained on the women's basketball staff through the 1989-90 season, before heading to Loras College for the 1990-91 season.

Prior to the 1990-91 season, Yori was named head basketball coach at Loras College and hired Flanery as her assistant. At Loras, Flanery helped the Dubuque, Iowa, school to a two-year 25-25 record. In 1991-92, the Duhawks finished with a 15-10 record, the program's first winning season since 1986-87.

When Yori was tabbed as the head coach at Creighton prior to the 1992-93 season, Flanery once again joined forces with Yori to continue the winning tradition Rasmussen had established at CU. As Yori's top assistant, Flanery and the Bluejays notched a 170-115 record in a 10-year span. The Jays made two appearances in the NCAA Tournament and earned one invite to the WNIT with Flanery on the sidelines as an assistant.

During his tenure as an assistant at Creighton, the Jays produced 20 all-Missouri Valley Conference athletes, including two Most Valuable Players - Carrie Welle (1997) and Christy Neneman (2002). The Jays also produced two freshmen of the year, two newcomers of the year and one defensive player of the year during that 10-year span.

Flanery has also guided one of the top academic teams in the nation during his stint at Creighton. The Jays' team grade point average has ranked in the top 10 nationally four times since 1992, while ranking 19th in the NCAA in team GPA in 2003-04. Thirteen first-team MVC scholar-athletes have played for Flanery, including two academic All-Americans. In 2003-04, Dayna Finch was honored as the MVC Prairie Farms Scholar Athlete of the Year.

Flanery, 39, is originally from Guthrie Center, Iowa, where he starred on the basketball, baseball and golf teams at Guthrie Center High School from 1979 to 1983. Flanery was also a member of the Creighton golf team during his four-year collegiate career.

Associate Head Coach Tanya Warren

Tanya Warren

Associate Head Coach
First Season
Creighton, 1988

Creighton Hall of Famer Tanya Warren is in her first season as the associate head coach at her alma mater. Warren, a 1988 Creighton graduate and 1996 Athletic Hall of Fame inductee, will play an integral part in recruiting as the newest member of the Bluejay basketball staff.

"We are thrilled to have Tanya back at Creighton," Head Coach Jim Flanery said. "She brings a terrific blend of enthusiasm and wisdom. We also believe her energy and recruiting experience will greatly benefit the program. I've known Tanya for over 20 years, and I know our players will enjoy being around her and learning from her as much as I do."

Along with her oncourt duties with the perimeter players at Creighton, Warren will be responsible for recruiting as well as the team's academic progress, strength and conditioning and fundraising.

Warren returns to Creighton following a three-year stint at the University of Missouri where she served as an assistant coach and the program's recruiting coordinator. The Tigers made three consecutive postseason appearances in her stint at Mizzou, including a trip to the 2004 NCAA Tournament.

The Warren File

Education: Creighton, B.S., Social Work, 1988	Iowa State University 1994-95, Assistant Coach
Coaching Experience: Creighton University 2004-present, Assoc. Head Coach	Duchesne Academy 1992-94, Head Coach
University of Missouri 2001-04, Assistant Coach	Boys Town High School 1989-92, Head Coach
University of Northern Iowa 1995-01, Assistant Coach	Playing Experience: Creighton University 1983-88, Guard

No stranger to the Missouri Valley Conference, Warren served as an assistant coach at the University of Northern Iowa for six seasons under former Creighton assistant coach Tony DiCecco. In Warren's final season at Northern Iowa, the Panthers advanced to the WNIT for the first national postseason appearance in the program's history. A native of Des Moines, Iowa, Warren also spent one season as an assistant coach at Iowa State in the mid-1990s.

From 1989 through 1992 Warren worked and coached at Boys Town in west Omaha. While at Boys Town she was the head girls basketball, track and volleyball coach at the high school on campus. She then served as the head basketball coach at Duchesne Academy in Omaha from 1992-94. Warren guided her Duchesne team to the first state tournament appearance in school history.

A standout guard in her playing days at Creighton (1983-88), Warren is the career leader in assists at CU with 650, while setting the CU single-season record and ranking 10th in the nation with 228 assists in 1987. Her 1,566 career points rank sixth in school history while she also ranks in the CU career top-10 in scoring average, field goals, free-throws made, free-throws attempted, free-throw percentage and steals.

She was named to the Kodak All-District V Team and the WNIT All-Tournament Team in 1987, adding 18.7 points per game along with her school record assist total that season. She was inducted into the CU Athletic Hall of Fame in 1996, one of just five women's basketball players in the Hall.

Warren graduated from Creighton in 1988 with a bachelor of science degree in social work. Her No. 10 jersey is one of only two retired numbers in CU women's basketball history.

Assistant Coach Holly Borchers

Holly Borchers

Assistant Coach
Third Season
Creighton, 1997

Holly Borchers enters her third season as an assistant coach at her alma mater after a four-year stint as an assistant at Wright State University in Dayton, Ohio. Creighton's recruiting coordinator, Borchers also heads up Bluejay community service outings and alumni relations in addition to her work with the backcourt.

While at Wright State from 1997 through 2001, Borchers was responsible for several aspects within the program including player development, academic monitoring, recruiting, camps and community relations. With the Raiders, Borchers implemented an Adopt-a-School program that originated with the women's basketball team and eventually expanded to all WSU athletic teams. She also served as staff liaison for community service and outreach in 1998, while receiving the athletic department award for service and outreach in 1997-98 and 1998-99.

"Holly has a great affection and loyalty for Creighton and our program," Head Coach Jim Flanery said. "You can see that affection in how hard she works and in the pride she takes in what we're doing. Her passion makes me want to be a better coach. The players and parents really like, respect and have confidence in Holly."

The Sioux Falls, S.D., native enjoyed a stellar career with the Bluejays from 1993-97, after being tabbed Miss South Dakota

Holly and Dean Borchers with son Vance.

Basketball in 1992 and earning USA Today All-America honors. The former Holly Sivesind ranks among career leaders in several categories for the Jays including points scored, scoring average, three-point field goals made, free throws made, steals and assists. She is one of 16 Jays with more than 1,000 career points and she ranks as the all-time free-throw accuracy leader, making 79.7 percent of her free throws at CU. The 1993-94 Missouri Valley Conference Freshman of the Year, also earned first-team all-MVC honors and all-tournament honors while playing for the Bluejays.

She graduated with a double major in theology and psychology in 1997. In 2002, she earned a master's degree in specialized ministry from the United Theological Seminary and a master's in mental health counseling from Wright State.

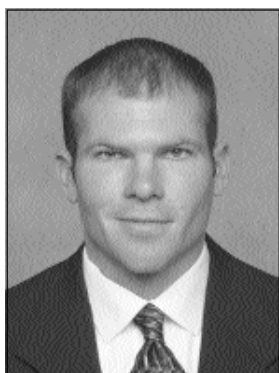

Borchers has volunteered at numerous basketball camps and youth camps, and has served on the Leadership Board for the Southwest Ohio Fellowship of Christian Athletes.

Borchers' brother, John, was Mr. Basketball of South Dakota in 1996 and finished his career as the career three-point field goals leader at Colorado State. Her father, John, played football at Kearney (Neb.) State College.

Holly and her husband, Dean, have been married four years. The couple has one child, Vance, born Oct. 18, 2003.

Assistant Coach Jarrod Olson

Jarrod Olson

Assistant Coach
Third Season
Doane College, 1997

Jarrod Olson begins his third season as an assistant coach on the Bluejay staff. Olson came to Creighton from the College of Saint Mary where he was named the 2001-02 Midlands Collegiate Athletic Conference Coach of the Year while serving as the head women's basketball coach at the NAIA school. Olson will work with the post players this season and also is responsible for camps, travel arrangements, game preparation and he plays a role in recruiting future student-athletes.

The Omaha native served as an assistant at Division II Emporia State (Kan.) University in 1997-98, when the Hornets notched a 33-1 record en route to a national runner-up finish. Olson has also worked as an assistant coach on the men's level at Bellevue (Neb.) University during the 1999-00 season and at Millard South High School in 1998-99.

"Jarrod's head coaching experience has really impacted both me and the team," Head Coach Jim Flanery said. "He's often a voice of reason on the bench. He's really efficient around the office and does a nice job of relating to the student-athletes. He knows the game and is very good at finding ways to utilize the strengths of our players."

In Olson's first year at the helm of the College of Saint Mary, the Flames notched a 5-20 record. In just his second season, he guided his team to a second place finish in the MCAC with a record of 18-15, earning him Coach of the Year laurels.

The 1993 all-state graduate of Millard South earned NAIA All-America status as a player at Doane College in Crete, Neb. Olson attended Doane from 1993 to 1997, where he earned a bachelor of arts degree in English/Language Arts in 1997 and a master's degree in curriculum and instruction in 1999.

Olson enjoyed a stint as a player and coach with the Queens Graduates Basketball Club in Belfast, Northern Ireland in 1998.

Olson and his wife, Amy, were married on Sept. 12, 2003 and reside in Omaha.

Jenny Burns

Graduate Manager
First Season
Creighton, 2003

Jenny Burns returns to her alma mater after one year away from the court to fill a new position on the Creighton basketball staff. As a graduate manager, Burns will assist with camps, film exchange, marketing and game management while also pursuing her master's degree in liberal studies.

A forward for the Bluejays from 1999 through 2003, Burns spent the last year as an intern in the Creighton athletics department working with both marketing and ticketing. She has also spent a semester each as a student teacher and a substitute teacher in the Bellevue, Neb., school district.

While working at Bellevue West High School, Burns coached the girl's junior varsity basketball team. She has also spent the last two summers as a coach with the Crusaders summer basketball program in the Omaha area.

The Minnetonka, Minn., native was a starter on Creighton's back-to-back Missouri Valley Conference regular-season championship teams in 2001-02 and 2002-03. She was a major contributor to CU's 2002 NCAA Tournament team and 2003 WNIT Final Four squad.

Burns was twice named to the MVC scholar-athlete first-team and earned Verizon Academic All-District VII Second-Team accolades as a senior while graduating with a 3.96 grade point average. She led the Jays with 25 blocked shots as a senior and finished her career with 63 blocked shots to rank ninth in school history. Despite battling injuries during her first two seasons, she ranked eighth in career games played when she finished playing.

Burns earned bachelor of arts degrees in history and secondary education in December, 2003.

Bluejay Academics

Bluejay Women's Basketball A Tradition Of Academic Excellence

- Since 1991, the CU women's basketball program has a 100 percent graduation rate.
- In three of the last eight years, the Creighton women's basketball program has been recognized by the Women's Basketball Coaches Association as one of the top-six Division I academic teams in the nation. CU's 3.25 cumulative GPA ranked 19th in the NCAA as recognized by the WBCA in 2003-04.
- Creighton's cumulative grade point average entering the 2004-05 season is 3.25, with nine of 11 returning players owning at least a 3.0 cumulative GPA.
- The Creighton women's basketball program has produced two Academic All-Americans. Becky Flynn earned second-team honors in 1996 and Carrie Welle was named second-team academic All-America in 1998.
- Dayna Finch was named the Prairie Farms Missouri Valley Conference Scholar-Athlete of the Year in 2003-04, earning a 4.0 grade point average in her final semester at Creighton. Finch graduated with a 3.67 GPA in psychology.
- Dayna Finch was named to the CoSIDA Academic All-District VII First-Team and Laura Spanheimer earned second-team honors in 2003-04. Spanheimer carries a 3.70 grade point average in exercise science.
- Laura Spanheimer and Dayna Finch were both named to the Missouri Valley Conference Scholar-Athlete First Team in 2003-04. Finch and Spanheimer were the only players in the MVC to repeat on the first-team.
- Laura Spanheimer was named the MVC Scholar-Athlete of the Week twice in 2003-04, while Dayna Finch, Sara Hildebrand and Angie Janis each earned the honor once.
- Jen Rochelle earned the MVC Commissioner's Academic Excellence Award for maintaining a minimum 3.5 GPA in each semester last year and a 3.2 cumulative GPA.
- Brandy Bush, Christy Erickson, Dayna Finch, Sara Hildebrand, Lucy Lapito and Laura Spanheimer were each named to the MVC Academic Honor Roll for having at least a 3.2 GPA in the term of recognition.

Academic and Athletic Success

- Creighton's student-athletes combined for a 3.29 GPA last spring. The student-athletes also own a 3.24 cumulative GPA.
- Ninety-three of Creighton's 227 student-athletes (41.0 percent) earned a 3.50 GPA or better during the Spring 2003 semester. Eight of these athletes were women's basketball players.
- Creighton had 122 student-athletes make the Dean's List at least once last year, including 61 student-athletes who did it both semesters.
- Eighteen student-athletes (7.9 percent) earned perfect 4.00 GPA's in Spring 2004.
- One-hundred sixty-one student-athletes (70.9 percent) earned a 3.00 GPA or better in the Spring 2004 semester.
- An incredible 91.2 percent (207-of-227) of Creighton's student-athletes own cumulative GPA's of 2.50 or better.
- Twelve of Creighton's 14 teams owned a cumulative grade-point average of 3.00 or better in the Spring 2004 semester. Four teams (volleyball, women's cross country, women's golf, women's tennis) had team GPA's of 3.40 or better.
- Creighton owns 19 CoSIDA Academic All-American honors.

Bluejay Community Service

As part of the Creighton University mission, a major goal of the athletic department is to serve the community. In addition to sponsoring camps and clinics throughout the year, Bluejay student-athletes take part in numerous community service activities throughout the academic calendar.

Student-athletes can be found actively volunteering their time for such programs as Big Brothers/Big Sisters, the Boys and Girls Club, the MVC "Just Read" program, the "Just Say No" program, youth mentoring, tutoring, Habitat for Humanity and Operation Bluejay.

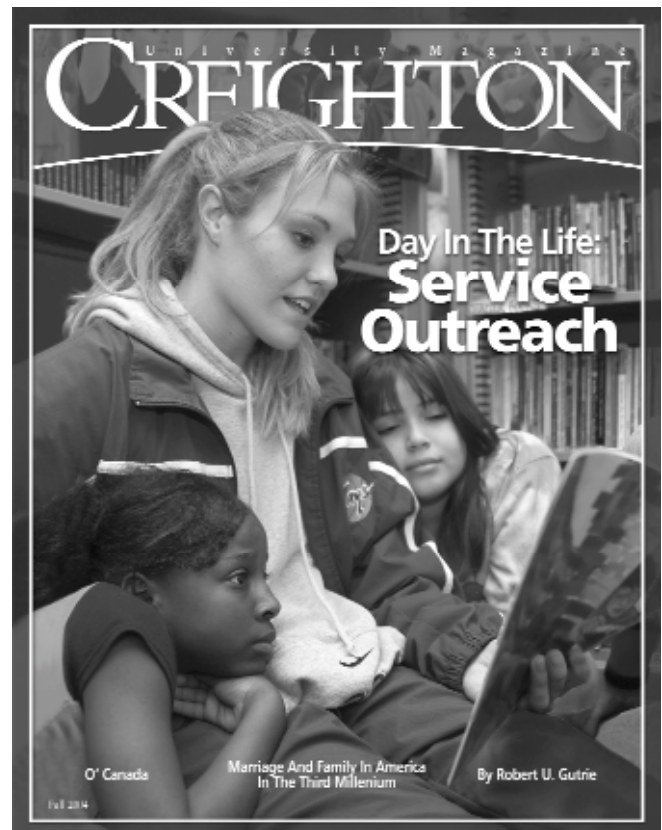

Members of the Creighton women's basketball team have regularly offered their time to Kellom Elementary School near the Creighton campus. Student-athletes spend an hour each week helping students with their school work at Kellom. The Bluejay women's basketball players tutor students at Kellom Elementary School in five subjects, including: math, English, science, reading and computers.

For the past six years, the women's team also has participated in Habitat for Humanity projects by helping build houses for needy Omaha families. In 2003, the entire Bluejay team pitched in at a Lake Manawa, Iowa, house to help clean up the area and tear down a garage for improvements to the property.

Over the past two seasons, the Bluejays have served dinner at the Siena Francis House, worked with the South Omaha YMCA, participated in a Read-a-thon, adopted a family and visited the Durham, N.C., Ronald McDonald House. Through the adopt-a-family program, the Jays were able to provide at least three gifts for a family of eight during the Christmas season.

As an example of the team's dedication to service, Angie Janis has volunteered her time at Morton Middle School and Boys Town High School to speak with students about being a collegiate athlete. Janis is pictured on this page at one of her community service outings, which was featured in the Fall 2004 Creighton University Magazine. Trips to All Saints Elementary School and Druid Hill Elementary School also highlight the Bluejays' busy service schedule.

This season, the women's basketball squad will once again take part in numerous community service activities. Through these activities, the student-athletes give back to the community by reaching out to Omaha youth and acting as positive role models.

Angie Janis appeared on the cover of the Fall 2004 Creighton University Magazine. A story discussing Creighton and community service was featured inside.

Creighton University

Location

Creighton is located in Omaha, Neb., population 390,976 with a combined metropolitan population of 734,270.

Creighton History

On Sept. 2, 2003 Creighton University celebrated its 125th anniversary. Creighton University was founded on Sept. 2, 1878 at the bequest of Mary Lucretia Creighton, the widow of telegraph pioneer Edward Creighton, who included money in her will for the establishment of a school in her husband's name.

In 2005 Creighton was ranked No. 1 among Midwestern colleges by U.S. News & World Report.

Creighton Today

Students are drawn to Creighton University because of its distinctive advantages:

- It is the nation's only university and academic medical center that links Jesuit and Heartland values in an exceptional array of undergraduate, graduate and professional programs on a unified campus with fewer than 7,500 students.

- In 2004, Creighton University is listed No. 1 in the U.S. News & World Report rankings of Midwestern comprehensive universities. In addition, U.S. News lists Creighton among 39 prestigious institutions as having excellent undergraduate research programs.

- Creighton students excel academically and its academic programs have achieved international stature. For the second year in a row, the academic profile of entering students is the highest in Creighton history.

- Creighton is undergoing the most aggressive campus expansion in the university's histo-

Creighton is known as the best comprehensive Jesuit institution in the nation, ranked in 2005 No. 1 among the best Midwestern Colleges by U.S. News & World Report.

ry. Building, expanding and upgrading the campus to link outstanding academics with an excellent campus life experience.

Schools and Colleges

Undergraduate study is offered in the College of Arts and Sciences, the College of Business Administration and the School of Nursing. Professional study is offered in the schools of Medicine, Dentistry, Law and Pharmacy and Health Professions. Creighton also has a Graduate School and University College for non-traditional students.

Student Life at Creighton

- Ten national social fraternities and sororities.
- More than 140 active student organizations on campus.
- Eight residence halls, which includes the newly constructed Junior-Senior townhome-style residence halls, which opened in August, 2004.
- A fine and performing arts facility for classes, theater productions, dance performances, chorus concerts and art exhibits.
- The new Michael G. Morrison, S.J., Stadium, one of the premier collegiate soccer stadiums in the nation.
- Opportunities for service locally, nationally and abroad, including programs in the Dominican Republic and a Spring Break Service Trip program.

Student Snapshot

Of Creighton's record total enrollment of 6,723, 58 percent are female and 42 percent are male. Minority students comprise 17 percent of the student population. Geographically, 49 states and 52 countries are represented and 66 percent of all students are Catholic.

The Creighton Campus

The 93.5-acre campus features nearly 60 buildings, many built within the past 20 years. Creighton's new Hixson-Lied Science Building opened in 2003, while the new junior-senior townhome-style residence halls completed in August 2004 are a centerpiece to Creighton's eastward campus expansion. Creighton was also ranked in the Intel top-50 colleges and universities in the nation for wireless computing access - the only university in Nebraska to make the list.

At the center of campus is the historic St. John's Church. The campus is located within walking distance of Omaha's Old Market entertainment and shopping district, the Orpheum Theater, the Civic Auditorium (home of Bluejay basketball), the Creighton Soccer Field, the Joslyn Art Museum and just blocks from the new Qwest Center OMAHA. The Skutt Student Center, the University's "living room," features a warm fireplace, lively grill and spacious ballroom.

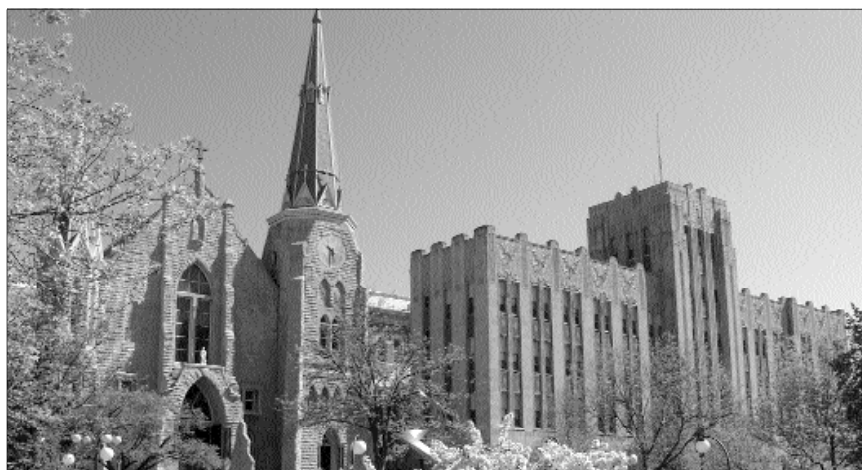

The Creighton Hixson-Lied Science Building opened in the spring of 2003.

Faculty

- A total of 1,526 faculty.
- Student-to-faculty ratio of 14:1.
- 80 percent of classes have fewer than 40 students and the average class size is 25.
- At Creighton, faculty are conducting internationally recognized work in many areas, including cancer genetics, respiratory diseases, osteoporosis, photography and regional economics.

Creighton Athletic Highlights

- CU serves as the annual host institution for the NCAA College World Series. June 17-27, 2005 will mark the 56th consecutive year the CWS comes to Rosenblatt Stadium in Omaha.
- Student-athletes owned a GPA of 3.29 last year, an all-time high.
- Women's basketball won the school's first postseason national title of any kind when they won the WNIT.
- Men's soccer team capped its 12th consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance with an Elite Eight appearance. The program has also made three College Cup showings since 1996.
- Creighton men's basketball program opened 12-0 and made the postseason for the seventh straight season.
- Creighton baseball finished second in the MVC and led the country in fielding percentage. Head coach Ed Servais became the first rookie baseball coach in league history to earn MVC Coach of the Year honors.

- Creighton softball repeated as MVC Tournament champions and advanced to the NCAA's for the third time in six years.
- Creighton learned it will co-host the first two rounds of the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament at Qwest Center OMAHA™ on March 20 & 22, 2008.

CU Athletics on the Web

Visit the official home page of the Bluejays at <http://www.gocreighton.com> to get the latest news on Creighton Athletics.

The site contains rosters, game notes, schedules, statistics and links on everything related to CU Athletics. The site offers a photo gallery containing more than 350 pictures of women's basketball gameday action and WNIT celebration photos.

All Bluejay women's basketball games which are broadcast on the radio, will also be linked as a web broadcast on the site, allowing fans outside of the Omaha area to listen.

For the first time in 2004-05, all Creighton home games are scheduled to have live stats provided on the internet.

History of Billy Bluejay

"Billy Bluejay" is the official mascot of the Creighton University athletics department. The Bluejays were originally depicted by a "birdwatcher's bluejay," but that was changed in 1941 when Joseph P. Murphy, a Creighton alumnus, designed the current version of Billy, one with a more human stance and expression.

Prior to 1924, Creighton teams were referred to as the "Hilltoppers," but that name lost favor because at least six other teams in the country also used the same nickname. The Omaha Bee assisted the University's Athletic Board and Alumni Association in finding a new nickname by asking readers to submit possibilities. After reviewing 200 entries, the Athletic Board decided upon "Bluejays" because of the school's colors, blue and white.

Today, Creighton remains the only NCAA Division I athletics program known officially as the Bluejays.

President Rev. John P. Schlegel, S.J.

Under the dynamic leadership of Creighton President the Rev. John P. Schlegel, S.J., Creighton University is nationally recognized as the leading comprehensive university in the Midwest and within the Jesuit network of universities.

Fr. Schlegel became Creighton University's 23rd president in August 2000, following nine years as president of the University of San Francisco.

Fr. Schlegel is leading Creighton into a new era of growth and prosperity. Through his vision, the University is embarking on its most ambitious campus expansion in its 125-year history. Creighton University will become a national model showcasing a dynamic faith-based living and learning community in a 21st century urban environment.

Fr. Schlegel has initiated changes that have enhanced the already nationally recognized academic quality of Creighton and the beauty of the campus. During his tenure several new construction projects have taken place or are in progress. Creighton renovated and is expanding its Integrated Science Center, which includes the new Hixson-Lied Science Building and totally renovated Rigge Science and Criss Medical buildings. Creighton's Science Center and the Creighton University Medical Center provide a national model for interdisciplinary health sciences education and research.

The newly built, beautiful red brick Junior-Senior Town Homes anchor Creighton's eastward expansion that is taking shape nearby Omaha's dynamic downtown and riverfront redevelopment. Creighton's campus expansion to the east and west will provide Omaha with a park-like setting, offering green spaces, pathways and plazas. Add to that Creighton's new soccer stadium, which is among the premier college campus soccer facilities in the nation.

Prior to his service at the University of San Francisco, Fr. Schlegel was Creighton University's assistant academic vice president (1978-82), academic dean of Rockhurst College (1982-84), dean of arts and sciences at Marquette University (1984-88), and executive and academic vice president at John Carroll University (1988-91).

Fr. Schlegel, a native of Dubuque, Iowa, entered the Society of Jesus in 1963 and was ordained in 1973. He holds B.A. and M.A. degrees from Saint Louis University; a B.D. honors degree in theology from the University of London; and a doctorate in international relations from Oxford University.

He is a member of numerous international, national and local boards of directors, executive committees and associations. Fr. Schlegel is a past member of the board of trustees of Chicago's Loyola University, Xavier University, Loyola University of the South, St. Louis University and Loyola College in Maryland. Fr. Schlegel also is a director of the American International School of Hong Kong.

In Omaha, he serves on several boards including Creighton University Medical Center, Creighton Preparatory School, Duchesne Academy and Opera Omaha. He is a member of the board of directors and serves on the Executive Committees of the Greater Omaha Chamber of Commerce, Joslyn Art Museum and Mid-America Council, Boy Scouts of America.

Previously, he has held numerous board positions with an array of organizations including St. Mary's Medical Center Foundation, Il Cenacolo, Coro, World Affairs Council of Northern California, the Association of Catholic Colleges and Universities, the National Association of Independent Colleges and Universities, where he served as chair of the National Student Aid Task Force, and Heythrop College at the University of London.

Fr. Schlegel also has served on accreditation site visits for the North Central Association, and was a consultant to the Organization for Economic Development and Cooperation based in Paris.

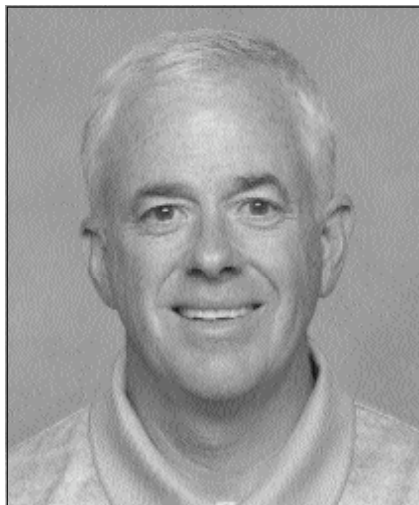

In May of 2004 the Woodmen of the World Life Insurance Society Lodge 1 in Omaha presented him with the 2004 Honored Citizen Award for his outstanding leadership of Creighton University. For his promotion of understanding and respect among all races, religions and cultures, Fr. Schlegel received the Otto Swanson Spirit of Service Award from the National Conference for Community and Justice in May 2003. Fr. Schlegel also received the first Champion of Greatness Award from Special Olympics Nebraska.

He enjoys opera, classical music, gourmet cooking, racket sports, and the outdoors.

Fr. John P. Schlegel, S.J., stands outside the Administration Building talking with students, an activity he enjoys year-round. Fr. Schlegel became Creighton's 23rd president in August, 2000.

Athletics Director Bruce Rasmussen

Bruce Rasmussen is in his 11th year as director of athletics, and 25th overall at Creighton University.

During his tenure, Creighton has risen to prominence with its success on-and-off the field, impressive new facilities and record-breaking fundraising efforts.

Last winter Creighton earned its first post-season national title of any kind when the women's basketball team won the WNIT. It was the second consecutive WNIT Final Four appearance for the program that Rasmussen once coached.

The men's soccer team is one of a handful of schools to appear in each of the last 12 NCAA Tournaments, while the men's basketball team is just the third team in the 98-year history of the Missouri Valley Conference to reach the postseason in seven straight campaigns. Combined, Creighton is the only school in the country that can claim seven consecutive postseason appearances in men's soccer and men's basketball.

In addition, the Creighton softball team has made back-to-back NCAA Tournament appearances, advancing to the final day of the eight-team Regionals in 2004.

Four Creighton teams moved to new facilities in 2003-04. The men's basketball team moved to the riverfront to play in the brand-new, $291 million, Qwest Center OMAHA™. In their new confines, the Jays averaged an MVC-best 12,016 fans per game and attracted nine of the top 10 home crowds in CU history.

The Creighton Soccer Field opened as one of the premier soccer venues in the country. Located on the east edge of the Creighton campus, the complex includes 5,000 seats and will serve as the home for the 2004 State Farm Missouri Valley Conference Men's Soccer Tournament this fall.

Additionally, the Creighton volleyball team found a new home at the venerable Omaha Civic Auditorium. The move closer to campus paid big dividends, as the program established a new average attendance mark.

Rasmussen also has continued to make outstanding hires at every opportunity. Kirsten Bernthal Booth helped the volleyball team improve by nine wins in her first season, while Ed Servais became the MVC's first rookie baseball coach to ever earn Coach of the Year honors.

Another recent hire, women's basketball's Jim Flanery, matched the league record with 48 wins in his first two seasons while taking the team to back-to-back WNIT Final Four berths.

A member of the College World Series of Omaha, Inc., Executive Committee, Rasmussen plays a vital role in Creighton and the city of Omaha remaining as host of the College World Series. The CWS has established new attendance records in each of the past two years at Rosenblatt Stadium.

Last year Rasmussen was one of four regional winners from the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) to take home a GeneralSports TURF Systems AD of the Year Award.

In terms of academics, Creighton's reputation as one of the nation's top academic institutions is reflected in the success the Bluejay student-athletes have had in the classroom during Rasmussen's service as athletics director. Creighton's baseball, men's basketball, women's basketball, volleyball, men's and women's cross country, women's soccer and men's and women's tennis teams all have received national awards for their academic success. Last year, Bluejay student-athletes had an average GPA of 3.29, an all-time high.

Creighton's primary annual fund-raising events are the Bluejay Bash, the Bluejay Golf Marathon and the Bluejay Jamboree. Under Rasmussen's supervision, each of these events continues to raise record-breaking funds for Creighton athletics. Most notably, the 2003 Jamboree generated more than $325,000 through its gourmet dinner, raffle and auction.

The successful fund-raising efforts have allowed Creighton to enhance its facilities under Rasmussen's leadership. In 1998, the $1.7 million Student-Athlete Support Center renovation project was completed in the Old Gymnasium, resulting in seven new team locker rooms, an expanded athletic training facility, new offices and storage space and an academic learning center. The centerpiece of the project is The Parker Family Foundation Academic Learning Center, which houses the athletic department's academic support team and features 20 computer stations and private study areas.

Rasmussen accepted the associate athletics director position in 1992 after a 12-year run as the winningest coach in Creighton women's basketball history (196-147), culminating in the program's historic 1991-92 season.

The 1992 Western Athletic Conference Coach of the Year, Rasmussen led the 1991-92 Bluejay women to a program-record 28 wins (28-4), the WAC regular-season and tournament championships and a first-round NCAA Tournament victory in the program's first-ever trip to the "Big Dance." With that 28-4 record in 1991-92, Rasmussen completed his college coaching career with a 196-147 record, good for a .571 winning percentage.

After serving as associate athletics director for two years, 1992-94, Rasmussen was named athletics director on Aug. 1, 1994.

A 1971 graduate of Northern Iowa, Rasmussen came to Creighton from Bettendorf (Iowa) High School, where he put together a three-year girl's basketball coaching record of 64-15. His 1978-79 club posted a mark of 27-2 and finished second at the state tournament. Rasmussen also coached at Maxwell (Iowa) High School, with a four-year record of 66-26, and Murray (Iowa) High School, with a two-year ledger of 31-13.

A native of Webster City, Iowa, Rasmussen and his wife, Jill, have five children: Megan (19), David (17), John (13), Katy (9) and Grace (6).

Omaha, Nebraska

Omaha is a rich cultural city with a dynamic business community. Ranked by Forbes magazine as one of the Top 10 Best Places for Business and Careers, Omaha balances Midwest values with big-city life in the heart of America. It showcases numerous nationally recognized and world-renowned attractions.

A center for information technology, telecommunications, transportation and food processing, Omaha is the center of a metropolitan area of about 734,270, with more than one million people within a 50-mile radius. Omaha is located near the geographic center of the United States, on the west bank of the Missouri

With an outstanding public education system, Omaha was selected as a model of business-education partnerships to kick off America 2000. Nebraska ranks among the top states nationally for ACT and SAT scores. For 125 years, Omaha has been home to Creighton University, which is known as the best comprehensive Jesuit institution in the nation, consistently at the top of U.S. News & World Report annual rankings.

Omaha serves as headquarters for three Forbes 500 companies: #11 Berkshire Hathaway, #71 Union Pacific and #87 ConAgra Foods. More than 20 insurance companies, two dozen direct response/telemarketing centers and a number of other national and international firms also have headquarters in Omaha. The headquarters of STRATCOM, a vital military nerve center located at Offutt Air Force Base, is located in Omaha.

Omaha's unemployment rate has remained well under the national average during the past decade. Still, Omaha has accommodated new growth. During the 1990s, the Omaha metro area added more than 84,000 jobs, an increase of more than 25 percent.

Omaha is a cultural center of the Great Plains, with more than 20 live theaters (three that produce original works), a professional opera company, a regional professional symphony orchestra, a professional children's theater, a children's museum and a youth orchestra. Joslyn Art Museum and the Durham Western Heritage Museum are the two largest of many area art and historical offerings.

The Omaha Henry Doorly Zoo has an international reputation for its breeding programs, and its outstanding "no bars" facility boasts the world's largest indoor rain forest, cat complex and aviary. Its newest additions are a salt water aquarium, the most technically advanced in the country, an IMAX theater, the largest indoor desert in the world and a gorilla complex.

Outstanding sporting events in the area include the annual NCAA College World Series, for which Creighton serves as host, Omaha Royals (AAA baseball), the Omaha Lancers (U.S. Hockey League), the Omaha Beef (National Indoor Football League) and a wide variety of collegiate and individual sports.

With all the city has to offer, Omaha enjoys a cost of living ranging up to 13 percent below the national average.

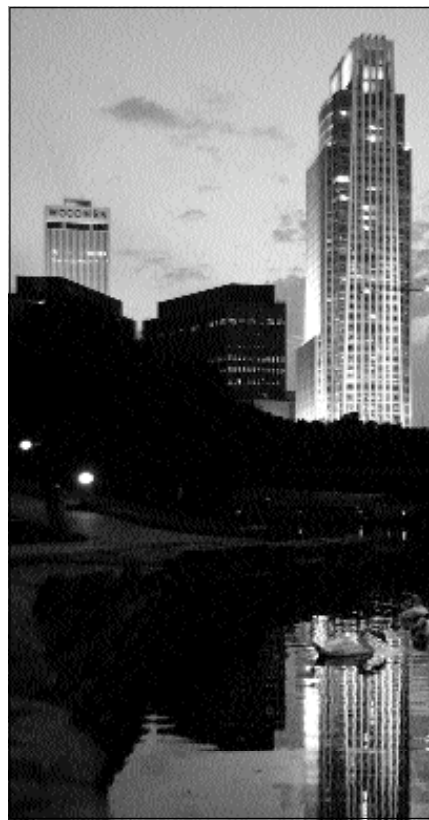

Qwest Center OMAHA is home to Creighton men's basketball, the 2006 NCAA Women's Volleyball Championships and will host the first-and-second rounds of the 2008 NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament.

River that forms the Nebraska-Iowa border. The metro Omaha area has seen steady growth over the past five decades and is now the 42nd largest city and 61st largest metro area in the nation.

For the 56th consecutive year, Omaha will serve as host city for the NCAA College World Series at Rosenblatt Stadium, June 17-27, 2005.

The 93.5-acre Creighton University campus is located within walking distance of Omaha's Old Market entertainment and shopping district.

State Farm MVC Tournament

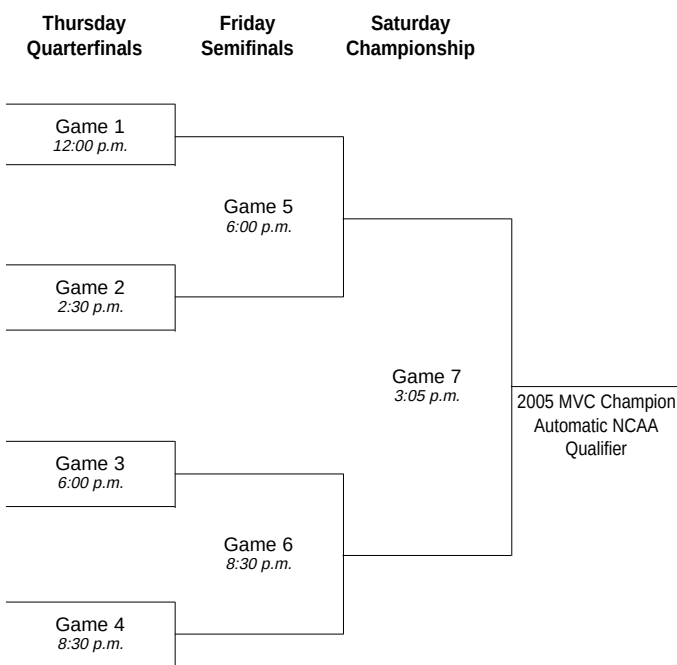

The Creighton women's basketball team has qualified for the Missouri Valley Conference Tournament every year since joining the league for the 1992-93 season. The Jays clinched their first and only Missouri Valley Conference tournament championship with three wins in Springfield, Mo., in 2002. Creighton defeated Indiana State and Evansville en route to the championship game match up with Drake. The Bluejays, led by a 39-point performance from Christy Neneman, held on for a 77-74 victory over the Bulldogs to earn their third NCAA tournament berth in school history.

The Bluejays have lost in the quarterfinals five times (2004, 2001, 2000, 1997 and 1995), and have bowed out in the semifinals four times (2003, 1998, 1996, 1993). Creighton made it to the MVC championship game in 1999 — joining Wichita State (in 1997) as the only No. 7 seeds to reach the title game — losing to No. 4 Evansville in an overtime thriller, 75-72. CU also reached the MVC Tournament championship game in 1994, losing to Southwest Missouri State, 88-71.

This season the State Farm MVC Tournament will be hosted by Illinois State University in Normal, Ill. The tournament in Normal marks the first time since the 1993 tournament in Omaha that the event will be held outside of Des Moines or Springfield. The championship game will once again be televised live on Fox Sports Net.

Missouri Valley Conference

The Missouri Valley Conference continues to lead by example as one of college athletics' most progressive conferences. Two years shy of its centennial celebration, the MVC emphasizes the importance of the student-athlete and is aggressive in its approach to provide opportunities for its member institutions.

Since its inception in 1907, the Missouri Valley Conference has been regarded as a leader by its peers among today's collegiate athletic conferences.

Based in St. Louis since 1985, the league is assertive in its approach to hosting NCAA basketball championship events, operating a revenue-producing in-house television network, bidding out the right to play host to sport championships and landing title sponsorships for those events.

During the tenure of Doug Elgin, the Valley's ninth commissioner, the league has hosted the 1993, 1998, and 1999 NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Midwest Regionals, the 2001 NCAA Division I Women's Basketball Final Four, the 2002 NCAA Division I Men's Basketball First/Second Rounds, and a 2004 NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Regional. In 2005 (April 2 and 4), the St. Louis Organizing Committee (SLOC), comprised of the Missouri Valley Conference, the St. Louis Sports Commission, the Convention & Visitor's Commission, and Saint Louis University, will host the jewel of the men's championship as the Men's Final Four -- the city's first since 1978 -- will be played at the Edward Jones Dome.

The SLOC was recently awarded two more NCAA events, giving St. Louis and the MVC a total of four NCAA basketball events in a span of six years (2004 through 2009) -- more than any other city. In July of 2003, the NCAA announced that the city's second Women's Final Four will come to the Gateway city in 2009, while in July of 2004, the NCAA confirmed that St. Louis and The Valley would host a men's basketball regional in 2007. Additionally, the Valley and Creighton will co-host a 2008 first and second round at the Qwest Center OMAHA. The Valley and the city of St. Louis will have hosted eight NCAA basketball events in a 12-year span, including three Final Fours, by April of 2009 (that doesn't include the 2008 event in Omaha.)

And while the MVC has been progressive in pursuing NCAA events, it has continued to be a national leader in the athletic arena. The oldest conference west of the Mississippi River, the Valley has had numerous successes in its storied history, which includes a myriad of accomplishments since the turn of the century.

Last year alone, the league had a combined seven postseason teams in men's and women's basketball. In all, the Valley had an historic season, as Creighton's women's basketball team claimed the first national championship for the league since 1989 (Wichita State, baseball) as the Bluejays took the WNIT title. Two volleyball teams (Northern Iowa, SMS) represented the Valley in postseason play; three men's soccer teams (Creighton, SMU, Tulsa) claimed spots in the NCAA soccer championship, with Creighton one win shy of the College Cup; and two softball teams (CU, SIU) reached the NCAA tournament for a second-straight year.

The Valley has also been cutting edge in the area of its television network. Beginning in 1993-94, the Valley took its television network in-house and began to produce, syndicate and sell a televised package of regular-season and tournament events for distribution on local broadcast and national cable networks. The Valley Television Network includes a package of more than 30 men's and women's basketball games and selected other tournament championship events that air on ESPN, ESPN2, Fox Sports Net, Fox College Sports, College Sports Television, and on statewide cable systems and local broadcast stations throughout the Midwest.

Athletic accomplishments on the men's athletics side include four national basketball championships, 17 trips to the NCAA Men's Basketball Final Four, and a 1989 national baseball championship. In 2001, Southwest Missouri State added to the Valley women's accomplishments, as the Lady Bears advanced to the Women's Basketball Final Four in St. Louis. Creighton (2004) claimed a national championship (WNIT) in women's basketball, while SMS also has a 1992 NCAA Women's Final Four appearance, and Creighton (2003) and Drake (1999) have made semifinal trips to the WNIT postseason tournament.

Men's basketball, perhaps, has the league's most storied tradition with the likes of Hall of Famers Indiana State's Larry Bird and Cincinnati's Oscar Robertson, but the Valley has also produced national-caliber student-athletes in its other sponsored sports. In 2001, SMS' Jackie Stiles became the first Valley woman to earn the Honda Award, given to the nation's top female collegiate student-athlete. In the sport of track and field, Indiana State's Holli Hyche captured seven national sprint titles in the 1990s, and Southern Illinois' Darrin Plab won back-to-back NCAA outdoor high jump titles in 1991 and 1992. At the 2002 NCAA indoor meet, Illinois State's Christian Goy won the mile run, becoming the 17th male national champion in league history. In the fall of 1997, Creighton's Johnny Torres was named the collegiate male soccer player of the year for a second-straight year. While league member Wichita State has produced two national collegiate players of the year in baseball: Joe Carter (1981) and Darren Dreifort (1993).

Indeed, the inclusion of women's programs under the Valley banner -- the nation's second-oldest collegiate athletic conference -- has provided a boost. The Gateway Collegiate Athletic Conference -- which began in 1982 -- merged with the MVC and was unveiled as part of the new conference on July 1, 1992. And while the inclusion of women's sports under a comprehensive athletic umbrella is a recent development in the league's storied 97-year history, over the years, Valley student-athletes and coaches have become household names during the league's illustrious history, both during their collegiate careers and, for some, professional careers.

2003-04 Review - WNIT Champions

Creighton capped its 2003-04 season with a five-game winning streak in the National Invitation Tournament to claim the first national postseason tournament title by any athletic program in school history. The 73-52 throttling of UNLV in front of a rowdy Civic Auditorium crowd concluded one of the most successful seasons and three-year periods in school history.

The Bluejays finished the season with a mark of 24-9 for the second straight year, while becoming the first team in Missouri Valley Conference history to win at least 24 games in three consecutive campaigns. CU's five-game winning streak to end the year was its longest season-ending streak in school history. Head Coach Jim Flanery improved his overall record to 48-18, tying the best two-year start by a coach in league history. The Jays also improved to 10-3 all-time in the WNIT, including 8-1 under Flanery. A 12-1 home record moved CU's home mark to 36-3 over the last three seasons.

The amazing run in the WNIT was led by tournament MVP Christy Neneman. The senior closed her career by averaging 15.6 points, 6.0 rebounds and 4.6 assists per tournament game, while shooting 90.5 percent (19-21) from the free-throw line. Senior Dayna Finch and junior Laura Spanheimer joined Neneman on the all-tournament team. Finch led the team with 17.0 points per game, sinking 14 three-pointers in the five wins. Spanheimer averaged 14.4 points, 5.4 rebounds, and 2.4 steals per contest, while leading the Jays with 15 treys. CU set a WNIT record with 44 three-point field goals and shot an impressive 89.9 percent (71-79) at the free-throw line during its championship run.

Neneman and Spanheimer each earned first-team all-Missouri Valley Conference recognition, while Finch was tabbed to the honorable-mention squad. Spanheimer was also named the MVC Defensive Player of the Year for the second straight season and earned all-defensive team honors for the third time. Finch and Spanheimer repeated on the MVC Scholar-Athlete First-Team and Finch was tabbed the Prairie Farms MVC Scholar-Athlete of the Year.

For the third consecutive season, the Bluejays set a school record for three-pointers made with 260 treys. They ranked third in the NCAA in three-pointers per game and ranked among the NCAA elite in fewest turnovers per game (11th) and steals per game (29th).

Finch finished seventh in the NCAA in three-pointers per game and 27th in the nation in three-point accuracy. Spanheimer ranked 22nd in the nation with 3.1 steals per game, becoming just the second CU player to record 100 steals in a season. Kristi Woodard set a school record and led the MVC by shooting 89.2 percent (66-74) from the free-throw line.

Four different Bluejays earned MVC Player of the Week recognition during the season; Finch, Neneman, Spanheimer and Woodard. In addition, four different players earned Valley Scholar-Athlete of the Week notice; Finch, Spanheimer, Sara Hildebrand and Angie Janis.

A challenging non-conference schedule prepared the Bluejays for Valley competition and their postseason run. CU faced three top-25 opponents in its first seven games of the season. A disappointing loss at Northwestern, playing without Finch and Spanheimer, opened the 2003-04 season for the Bluejays. The Jays rebounded quickly by defeating UMKC two days later, led by a career-high 26 points from Janis.

A trip to the Duke Classic in Durham, N.C., during Thanksgiving break gave CU its first nationally-ranked foe of the year in No. 25 Auburn. The Jays held a 46-39 lead at halftime against the 2003 WNIT Champions, but the Tigers' inside game proved too much for the Jays as Auburn came from behind to claim a 79-72 win. Once again the Bluejays bounced back, posting their highest point output of the year in a 91-64 defeat of Stephen F. Austin the following day.

The Bluejays remained on the road when they traveled to ninth-ranked Minnesota next. Even with All-American Lindsay Whalen pouring in 30 points against the Bluejays, CU remained close to the Gophers, eventually falling 82-71.

After five road games to open the year, the Bluejays finally debuted at the Civic Auditorium on Dec. 7 with another Big Ten opponent. CU avenged a road loss from the previous season by defeating Michigan, 82-66. The Jays shot a season-high 51.7 percent in the victory.

Another five-game road trip awaited the Bluejays next, beginning with a difficult contest in Manhattan, Kan. The 11th-ranked Kansas State Wildcats handed the Jays their worst defeat of the year, paced by National Player of the Year candidate Nicole Ohlde's 32 points. The Bluejays stayed on the road and in the Big 12 for their next game, traveling to in-state rival Nebraska. The Huskers held CU without a field goal in the final three-plus minutes of play to come-from-behind and win 70-62. Neneman played just 11 minutes after breaking her hand in the first half. The senior would miss the next five games with the injury.

Playing in their first game without Neneman, the Bluejays got a heroic effort from an unlikely source as they concluded non-conference play with an 84-72 overtime win at Iowa. Senior Sara Hildebrand sank her third career three-point field goal with 18 seconds remaining in regulation to tie the game and then opened overtime with another trey to spark the victory.

Two road MVC contests opened the Valley portion of the slate for CU. Finch sank two free-throws with five seconds remaining to lead CU past Evansville 64-63 in the conference opener. Woodard's career-high 21 points led CU past Southern Illinois two days later.

Woodard continued her hot-shooting by topping her career-highs with 23 and 27 points over the next two games in home wins over Indiana State and Illinois State. Spanheimer logged just the second triple-double in school history when she scored 12 points, grabbed 10 rebounds and dished a career-high 11 assists in CU's win over Indiana State.

CU's five-game winning streak and 4-0 start in MVC play was put to the test at Southwest Missouri State. The Lady Bears used a Jenni Lingor three-point field goal with 5.9 seconds left in regulation to send the game to overtime, where SMS topped the Jays 86-80 in a battle for first place. Sophomore Christy Erickson recorded a career-best 11 assists in the overtime loss.

The Bluejays would rebound to put together a seven-game winning streak, beginning with a triumph in Wichita. Finch, playing in her home state, scored her 1,000th career point in a 72-60 win at Wichita State.

Included in the seven-game streak was a 30-point output from Neneman in a home win over Northern Iowa and CU's largest margin of victory over Drake (68-48) in the 38 all-time meetings with the Bulldogs.

Exciting finishes at Illinois State and Indiana State were also part of the streak. Erickson blocked a three-point attempt at the buzzer as the Bluejays defeated the Redbirds 75-72.

2003-04 Review - WNIT Champions

Spanheimer's layup with 2.1 seconds on the clock gave the Jays a 47-46 win in a sloppy affair against the Sycamores.

It would be the eventual league champion SMS Lady Bears that would hand CU just its second conference loss to end the seven-game winning streak. The 23rd-ranked Lady Bears shot 50 percent from the floor and held off a hard-charging comeback attempt from CU to win 71-65. The loss snapped the Jays' 28-game home MVC winning streak, their first home conference loss since Feb. 2, 2001.

Creighton then went on the road, where it topped Northern Iowa and Bradley before falling at Drake. Spanheimer established a career-best with six three-point field goals in the loss to the Bulldogs, while leading all players with a career-high tying 24 points.

The Bluejays finished the MVC season by defeating UE and SIU at home in early March. The wins secured CU a second place finish in league play with a 15-3 record.

With an at-large bid to the NCAA Tournament not secured, the Bluejays entered the MVC Tournament with a 19-8 overall record. CU needed at least two victories at the tourney to improve its chances for an NCAA bid. The second-seeded Bluejays failed to produce even one victory. Despite holding a 15-point second-half lead against Northern Iowa, CU could not hold on for a win. The Jays were held scoreless over the final 5:10 of the game and were out-rebounded 47-22 as the Panthers became only the third No. 7 seed to defeat a No. 2 seed in Valley tournament history.

The Bluejays accepted their second straight bid into the postseason WNIT and for the second straight year were sent on the road to open the tournament. CU continued the WNIT success it achieved in 2003 by winning at Colorado State in the first round. Just two days later, the Bluejays shocked Pac-10 power Washington with a 74-69 win in Seattle. Janis' team-leading fifth double-double (22 points, 11 rebounds) of the year paced the Jays over the Huskies.

CU would return home for the final three games of the WNIT, first hosting Oregon State in the quarterfinals. The Beavers claimed a five-point lead early in the second half, but the Jays battled back to win by 10 over OSU. Atlantic-10 foe Richmond was CU's opponent in the semifinals. Two different 17-4 runs helped the Bluejays build a 72-51 lead and cruise to a victory over the Spiders.

UNLV, a surprise winner at Iowa State in the other semifinal, would prove no match for the Bluejays in the WNIT Championship game. The Bluejays never trailed in the game, jumping out to an early 17-4 lead and leading 41-29 at the half. The second-largest crowd in CU home history enjoyed a blowout as the Jays ended the year with a 73-52 triumph.

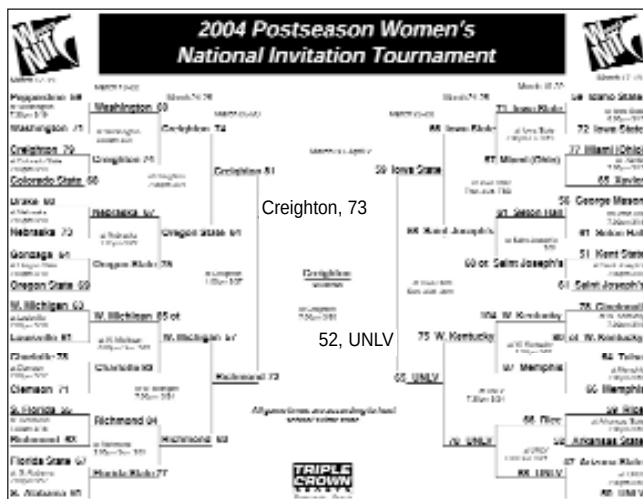

The 2003-04 Bluejays were rewarded with a reception on April 18, as Omaha Mayor Mike Fahey proclaimed the day "2004 Women's National Invitation Champion Creighton Women's Basketball Day". Nebraska State Senator John Synowiecki also recognized each player and coach. University President Rev. John P. Schlegel, S.J., was in attendance among the hundreds of fans who came to honor the champions.

A two-time MVC Player of the Year, Neneman ended her career ranked fourth in career points scored with 1,732. One of the all-time Bluejay greats, the Omaha native also ranks in the CU career top-10 in free-throw percentage (2nd), games played (2nd), free-throws made (3rd), free-throw attempts (4th), field goals (6th), rebounds (6th), steals (6th), assists (7th), scoring average (7th) and three-point field goals (9th).

Finch concluded her career as the MVC career leader in three-point field goals and three-point attempts. The long-range bomber made 294 threes in 766 career attempts from beyond the arc. She is the CU career leader with 121 games played and ranks among CU career leaders in three-pointers (2nd), three-point percentage (8th) and steals (9th), while scoring 1,260 career points to rank 11th.

Standing (l-r): Lucy Lapito, Deanna Castro, Codi Walker, Brandy Bush, Christy Neneman, Laura Spanheimer, Dayna Finch, Sarah Vrbicky.
Sitting: Jen Rochelle, Amy Hoffman, Angie Janis, Christy Erickson, Sara Hildebrand, Kristi Woodard.

The Bluejays set the WNIT record with 44 three-point field goals in five games and also shot an impressive 89.9 percent (71-79) from the free-throw line during their championship run.

The Bluejays pose with the WNIT trophy dressed in their championship shirts. The 2003-04 Jays became the first team in school and MVC history to win the WNIT.

Game 1

Creighton 41
Northwestern 59

November 21, 2003

Welsh-Ryan Arena • Evanston, Ill.

A poor shooting night coupled with the absence of returning starters Dayna Finch and Laura Spanheimer led to a disappointing overall performance from the Bluejays in a 59-41 loss. The Jays missed 21 of their first 23 shots on the night, and shot just 16 percent in the first half, while Northwestern made 67 percent of its shots in the same span. NU led by as many as 21 points in the first half, as the Jays had just seven points with three minutes remaining in the first half. CU didn't shoot much better in the second half but did manage to out-score NU, 28-27, in the final 20 minutes. Codi Walker, making her first career start, led the Jays with 11 points, a career-high five assists and played a career-best 40 minutes. CU's 13 points at the half were the fewest it had scored in a half since Jan. 20, 1988 against Utah. Finch and Spanheimer were forced to sit out due to an NCAA rules infraction (playing one game in an unsanctioned summer league).

UMKC 61

November 23, 2003

Swinney Rec Center • Kansas City, Mo.

Angie Janis' career-high 26 points helped guide the Bluejays to their first victory of the year. The sophomore added 10 rebounds for her third career double-double, while sinking a career-best 10 field goals in 27 minutes of play. CU jumped out to a 15-point lead over UMKC in the first half and appeared poised for a blowout. Up 31-16 with six minutes remaining in the first half, the Jays missed their next 11 field goal attempts and the Kangaroos went on a 16-0 run to hold a 32-31 lead at the break. Led by 17 second-half points from Dayna Finch the Jays' lead swelled to as many as 20 points. Finch finished with 20 points, surpassing 200 career three-point field goals in the win. Despite an off-shooting night, Christy Neneman grabbed nine rebounds and dished out a game-high 18 assists. Sara Hildebrand played a career-high 18 minutes and notched a career-best four assists.

November 29, 2003

Cameron Indoor Stadium • Durham, N.C.

Duke Classic

Creighton jumped out to a seven-point halftime lead, but could not hang on for the win, falling to No. 25 Auburn to open the Duke Classic. The Bluejays fell behind early, watching Auburn score the game's first nine points. CU responded with a 15-6 run to tie the score. The first half witnessed nine lead changes and seven ties, with CU closing the half on an 8-0 run to hold a 46-39 lead at the break. Dayna Finch led three Bluejays in double figures at the half, with 15 points on 5-of-8 shooting from three-point range. After the Jays shot 42 percent on three-point field goals in the first half, the Tigers responded by limiting CU's open looks in the second half, as CU shot just 21 percent from long range after the break. The Tigers pounded the paint in the second half in spurring their comeback and finished with 48 points in the paint, to CU's 20. Laura Spanheimer led all players with 22 points, while Finch finished with 15 and Christy Neneman chipped in 15 points. Christy Erickson led the Jays with a career-high six rebounds.

Duke Classic

The Bluejays pounded the Ladyjacks for a 91-64 victory to conclude their run at the Duke Classic. Dayna Finch led all players with 18 points and was named to the all-tournament team for her play. After SFA hit the first basket of the game to take a 3-0 lead, Angie Janis answered with a three-point field goal and Laura Spanheimer added a three of her own to give CU a lead they would not relinquish. The Jays dominated throughout, moving to a 35-point lead with three minutes remaining. Head coach Jim Flanery was able to use every healthy Bluejay in the game for the first time this season. Janis finished with 14 points in 15 minutes, while Amy Hoffman led all players with seven rebounds in just 11 minutes.

Creighton 71
#9 Minnesota 82

December 4, 2003

Williams Arena • Minneapolis, Minn.

All-American guard Lindsay Whalen led all players with 30 points in guiding the ninth-ranked Golden Gophers past Creighton. The Bluejays, battling their second nationally-ranked opponent in six days, gave the Gophers all they had. After falling behind early, the Jays came back and took a 15-14 lead, before Minnesota rattled off a 15-4 run to move to its largest lead of the first half, 30-19. CU refused to back down, closing the half on a 16-6 run and with Christy Neneman's buzzer beater, closed within one at the half. The game remained close and with the score tied 50-50 six minutes into the second half, U of M scored the next nine points and took control of the game. Neneman led the Jays with 20 points before fouling out with just under three minutes remaining. Minnesota native Christy Erickson led the Jays by tying a career-high with six rebounds. Gopher center Janel McCarville posted a double-double with 21 points and game-high 10 boards. Dayna Finch continued her hot-shooting, making 4-of-6 3-pointers for her fourth consecutive game with at least four threes.

December 7, 2003

Omaha Civic Auditorium • Omaha, Neb.

After five games on the road to open the season, the Bluejays finally opened their home season with a resounding defeat of Michigan. Laura Spanheimer led four Bluejays in double-figures with 17 points. The Jays scored the first six points of the game and never trailed in the contest, building a 12-point lead at one point in the first half, before heading to the locker room with a 38-29 lead at the half. Two quick Tabitha Pool jump shots after the break cut CU's lead to five, but the Jays would score the next five points and held a double-digit lead for the remainder of the game. Christy Neneman filled up the stat sheet with 12 points and a team-best six assists and five steals to tie a career-high. Kristi Woodard added 12 points and Codi Walker poured in 11 points, making 4-of-4 shots from the floor. CU's 51.7 shooting percentage marked the first time this season it topped 50 percent.

Creighton 60
#11 Kansas State 94

December 14, 2003

Bramlage Coliseum • Manhattan, Kan.

National Player of the Year Candidate Nicole Ohlde scored 32 points and led the 11th-ranked Wildcats to a 94-60 victory over the Bluejays. The loss, CU's worst in two years, moved its record to 0-3 against nationally-ranked opponents this year. CU could not slow down K-State's high-powered offense, as 20 of the Wildcats' first 45 points came on the fast break and KSU scored 24 first-half points in the paint in building a 45-30 lead. Ohlde had 19 points at the break, making 8-of-10 first-half shots while the Wildcats shot 64 percent in the opening half. Christy Neneman led four Bluejays in double figures with 19 points, moving her into sixth place on the CU career scoring chart with 1,471. Laura Spanheimer moved into seventh place in CU history with 135 career three-point field goals.

Game 8

Creighton 62
Nebraska 70

December 21, 2003

Devaney Center • Lincoln, Neb.

A late-game collapse doomed the Bluejays against former head coach Connie Yori and in-state rival Nebraska, as the Huskers held the Jays without a field goal in the game's final three minutes and 30 seconds. NU put together a game-ending 13-1 run to come from behind and top CU. With the game tied at the break, the Bluejays and Huskers exchanged baskets to start the second half before the Jays took the lead for the next 17 minutes of play. CU's lead swelled to seven points on two occasions, but the Jays hit only two field goals over the final eight-plus minutes of play as NU stormed back. The Huskers used their home court advantage to out-score the Jays 20-2, from the free-throw line on the day, including going 9-of-10 in the final three-plus minutes. CU missed four three-pointers and scored only one point in the same span as NU completed its comeback. Angie Janis tied a career-high with four blocks and notched her fourth career double-double. Christy Neneman played only 11 minutes after breaking a finger in the first half.

Game 9

Creighton 84
Iowa 72

December 28, 2003

Carver-Hawkeye Arena • Iowa City, Iowa

Sara Hildebrand's three-point field goal with 18 seconds remaining in regulation tied the game at 70 and sent the Bluejays to overtime with Iowa. The Iowa native then drained another three-pointer to open the extra period, as the Jays out-scored the Hawkeyes 14-2 in overtime to prevail. The threes were just the third and fourth of the senior's career, en route to her career-high 10 points and eight rebounds. Jennie Lillis' only three of the day with 26 seconds to play gave Iowa a 70-67 lead, before Hildebrand answered with her trey eight seconds later. CU led by nine points with nine minutes to play, before the Hawkeyes stormed back to take the lead. Iowa went 0-for-7 from the field in overtime, as CU went on a 7-0 run to start the bonus time. Senior Dayna Finch topped all players with 23 points on 7-of-11 three-pointers, while nailing her first five attempts from long range. Angie Janis tied a career-high with 12 boards, adding 12 points for her second straight double-double. Amy Hoffman made her first career start and CU played without injured Christy Neneman for the first time.

Game 10

Creighton 64
Evansville 63

January 3, 2004

Vincennes P.E. Complex • Vincennes, Ind.

Dayna Finch sank two free-throws with five seconds remaining in the game to give the Bluejays their first one-point victory since 1999 in both teams' MVC opener. Trailing 63-62, the Bluejays fouled to force a Purple Ace in-bound play. The Aces got the ball to Jamie Gray, but with no timeouts at her disposal, she was pinned against the sideline by Laura Spanheimer and Angie Janis causing a five-second count to be whistled. Finch then drove to the basket and was fouled by Megan Liffick with just five ticks left on the game clock. UE shot 32 percent in the first half and, due to a strong defensive effort from the Bluejays, had a nine-minute stretch in which it did not score a field goal. CU put together an 18-4 run during that span to move to their largest lead of the game, up 26-16 with 3:48 to play in the first half. Along with her game-winning free-throws, Finch also sank two freebies with 68 seconds left. Kristi Woodard swiped a career-best six steals. The one-point win was CU's first in MVC play since Feb. 16, 1995, moving to 2-2 all-time in one-point MVC games.

Southern Illinois 47

January 5, 2004

SIU Arena • Carbondale, Ill.

Kristi Woodard scored 17 of her career-high 21 points in the first half as CU improved to 2-0 in MVC play for the third consecutive season with a 59-47 win. Woodard had 17 of CU's 29 first-half points as both teams struggled to get into their offense. The Jays did not make their first field goal until the game was nearly five minutes underway. A Laura Spanheimer jumper gave CU a 5-4 lead just over five minutes into play and the Jays led the rest of the game. Dayna Finch was limited to a only eight points and no three-pointers for the first time in 14 games. Spanheimer did not attempt a three-point field goal for the first time in her career, but led CU with seven boards, four steals and four assists. CU's two three-point field goals were the fewest made by the Jays since Jan. 26, 2001, a span of 86 games.

Game 12

Indiana State 69
Creighton 87

January 8, 2004

Omaha Civic Auditorium • Omaha, Neb.

Laura Spanheimer's triple-double helped CU cruise to an easy victory over Indiana State in the Jays' MVC home-opener. The Jays shot out to an early 24-13 lead when Dayna Finch hit a three-pointer as the shot-clock expired. Kristi Woodard followed with a three-pointer and INSU's head coach Jim Wiedie was given a technical foul, allowing Woodard to sink two free-throws and give CU even more momentum, up 32-13. Woodard finished with a career-high point total for the second straight game, leading all players with 23 points. Spanheimer joined Becky Flynn (Jan. 11, 1994) as the only Bluejays to ever notch triple-doubles, scoring 12 points, 10 rebounds and a career-high 11 assists. The game was just CU's second home contest of the year and its 23rd straight at home over Valley opponents. Finch's three treys moved her into fifth place in MVC career three-pointers (235).

Game 13

Illinois State 72
Creighton 77

January 10, 2004

Omaha Civic Auditorium • Omaha, Neb.

For the third consecutive game, Kristi Woodard logged a career-high point total, scoring 27 to lead the Bluejays in a comeback victory over Illinois State. The Jays trailed by as many as 12 points in the win, but came up clutch from the free-throw line in the second-half to complete the comeback. After trailing at the half and the first 15 minutes of the second half, a Laura Spanheimer three-pointer capped an 8-1 run and gave CU its first lead of the half, up 67-66 with just over five minutes remaining. The Jays would not relinquish their lead and finished the game on a 19-7 run over the final nine minutes of play. The win was CU's fifth consecutive on the season and its 24th straight MVC home victory. The Jays also improved to 13-0 against ISU in Omaha, while halting ISU's season winning streak at seven games. Woodard sank a career-high eight field goals and went 9-for-9 from the free-throw line to improve to 22 consecutive free-throws made. Spanheimer led all players with 10 rebounds, grabbing her second consecutive double-double with 12 points. Dayna Finch moved into fourth place on the MVC career three-point list (237).

Southwest Missouri State ..86

January 17, 2004

Hammons Student Center • Springfield, Mo.

SMS' Jenni Lingor sank a three-point field goal with 5.9 seconds remaining in regulation to tie the game and send the Lady Bears and Bluejays to overtime. The Jays were then out-scored 10-4 in overtime, making just 2-of-10 field goals in the extra time, as SMS took sole possession of first-place in the MVC. CU trailed by three at the half, but claimed the lead just 90 seconds into the second half when Kristi Woodard sank a lay-up and two free-throws after SMS was whistled for an intentional foul. The Jays maintained their lead until Lingor's game-tying shot. CU held its largest lead, 69-61, with six minutes remaining in the game after trailing by as many as 11 points in the first half. The game was decided at the free-throw line, as SMS made 28-of-30 free-throw attempts, compared to just 7-of-12 by CU. The Jays were whistled for 17 second half fouls, to just 10 Lady Bear fouls in the same span. Christy Neneman returned after a five-game absence with a broken finger, scoring six points with five rebounds in 27 minutes off the bench. Laura Spanheimer and Dayna Finch led CU with 17 points.

Wichita State 60

January 19, 2004

Charles Koch Arena • Wichita, Kan.

Dayna Finch scored her 1,000th career point and the Jays returned to their winning ways, pulling away from a close game late in the second half for a 72-60 win over the Shockers. The game featured nine lead changes and four ties. CU jumped out to an 11-point advantage in the first half, but Wichita State answered with a 16-4 run to claim a 37-36 lead with two minutes left in the opening half. The Jays responded and took a 40-39 lead into the half, led by 12 first-half points from Finch on four three-point field goals. With the game tied at 56-56, CU put together a 12-2 run and owned a 10-point lead with five minutes to play. CU held WSU without a field goal over the final 7:44 of the game. Finch finished with 17 points on 5-of-10 shooting from long range, becoming the 15th player in CU history to surpass 1,000 career points. Kristi Woodard also tallied 17 points to tie for team-high honors. Christy Neneman tied her career-high with nine assists and Amy Hoffman established a career-best with nine rebounds.

Creighton 64

January 22, 2004

Omaha Civic Auditorium • Omaha, Neb.

The Bluejays narrowly edged the Braves, 64-59, in a sloppy affair. Bradley out-rebounded the Bluejays by 19 and the Jays shot a lowly 55.6 percent from the free-throw line in the win. Va'Nicia Waterman tied the game 59-59 with less than a minute to play. Dayna Finch responded with a jump shot on CU's ensuing possession and the Jays came up with three free-throws and two offensive rebounds in the final 30 seconds to preserve the win. CU converted 27 BU turnovers into 31 of their 64 points. The Jays trailed by seven in the first half, missing 11 of their first 12 shots on the night. Finch led the Jays with 19 points off the bench, sinking three three-pointers to move to 250 career treys and into third place in MVC history. Amy Hoffman notched a career-high five blocked shots, the most by a CU player since 1994. Christy Neneman returned to the starting line-up for CU and surpassed 1,500 career points. The win was CU's 25th consecutive home MVC triumph.

Game 17

Northern Iowa 64
Creighton 81

January 25, 2004

Omaha Civic Auditorium • Omaha, Neb.

Christy Neneman returned to her Player of the Year form and poured in 30 points to lead the Bluejays past the Panthers for their 26th consecutive home MVC win. UNI took the early lead, but after trailing 9-6, the Bluejays put together a 21-2 run over the next seven minutes and pulled away from the Panthers. The Jays' lead swelled to as many as 26 points in the second half. All 12 healthy Bluejays played at least six minutes in the blowout and 11 CU players got in the scoring column. Neneman's 30 points marked the eighth time in her career she'd registered at least 30 in a game. The senior also added a career-high six steals in the win. The game marked the first time this season Angie Janis did not start, she added eight points on 4-of-7 shooting from the field off the bench.

Game 18

Drake 48
Creighton 68

January 31, 2004

Omaha Civic Auditorium • Omaha, Neb.

Creighton rolled to a 68-48 victory over Drake in front of the fifth-largest home crowd in CU history. The 20-point margin of victory was the largest CU win over the Bulldogs in 37 all-time meetings. The game was never close, as the Bluejays jumped out to a 38-11 lead in the first half. The Bulldogs shot just 22 percent in the first half, while the Jays started the game by making 10 of their first 16 shots and made more three-point field goals in the first 20 minutes than DU field goals. Dayna Finch scored 15 of her game-high 17 points in the first half. Christy Neneman sank 3-of-4 three-point field goals for the second consecutive game, while Laura Spanheimer equalled Neneman's 13 points in the game. Angie Janis notched her fourth double-double of the season by tying her career-high with 12 rebounds along with 10 points. The Jays forced 22 turnovers and converted those into 26 points. The victory marked CU's 27th straight home conference win.

Game 19

Creighton 75
Illinois State 72

February 6, 2004

Redbird Arena • Normal, Ill.

Christy Erickson's block of Taren O'Brien's last second three-point shot attempt secured a 75-72 victory for the Bluejays over the Redbirds. For the second time this season the Jays used a come-from-behind effort to steal a victory from the Redbirds. With 47 seconds to play and the Jays up 73-71, the MVC's leading scorer Katie Donovan was sent to the free-throw line for two shots, going 1-for-2. The teams exchanged missed field goal attempts over the next 30 seconds before Kristi Woodard rebounded an ISU shot and was fouled. She made both free-throw attempts with 10 seconds to play to up CU's lead to 75-72 and set up Erickson's defensive play. The Jays escaped with a win by forcing 24 ISU turnovers, converting those into 26 points. CU also limited one of the top offenses in the NCAA to no field goals over the final 6:22 of the game. Laura Spanheimer led the Jays with 20 points, while sinking five three-point field goals. O'Brien torched CU for a career-high 29 points, 22 in the first half. Angie Janis and Christy Neneman both fouled out with over four minutes to play, with Neneman still leading the team with seven rebounds and five assists.

Game 20

Creighton 47
Indiana State 46

February 8, 2004

Hulman Center • Terre Haute, Ind.

Laura Spanheimer's layup with 2.1 seconds remaining capped an exciting, yet low-scoring victory for the Bluejays. There were 15 lead-changes and 10 ties in the poor-shooting affair. The Jays were able to overcome a miserable 24.6 field goal percentage by grabbing 48 rebounds, including a season-high 23 offensive boards. The Jays made just six field goals in the second half, shooting a lowly 19.4 percent. Spanheimer and Dayna Finch combined for 33 points and 11 of CU's 16 field goals in the win. The rest of the eight Bluejays who played, combined for 14 points and shot 5-of-36 from the field (.138). Finch's five three-point field goals moved her career total to 262, setting the MVC record for career three-pointers. Christy Neneman pulled down a game-high 11 rebounds. The win marked the first time the Jays were victorious when scoring less than 50 points since Feb. 5, 1979. CU also logged more rebounds than points in a game for the first time since Dec. 21, 2000.

February 13, 2004

Omaha Civic Auditorium • Omaha, Neb.

A technical foul whistled on Wichita State with 14:08 remaining in the game gave the Bluejays much needed momentum and spurred a furious comeback from a 12-point deficit. The Jays were trailing 36-24 when the technical was given to April Banks (her fifth personal) and CU followed with a 28-8 run to come up with its 28th consecutive home MVC victory. CU trailed by nine at halftime, shooting just 28.6 percent in the opening half. The Jays came back by shooting 44.8 percent, staying even on the boards and forcing 11 Shocker turnovers in the second half. CU scored 19 points off of WSU turnovers in the second half alone. Christy Neneman led all players with 26 points, moving into fifth place on the CU career scoring list with 1,582 points. Angie Janis pulled down a game-high 11 rebounds in just 21 minutes, while Amy Hoffman blocked three shots in only 12 minutes.

#23 Southwest Missouri State 71
Creighton 65

February 15, 2004

Omaha Civic Auditorium • Omaha, Neb.

Despite rallying from a 20-point second-half deficit to tie the game, the Bluejays could not overcome their poor shooting against the 23rd-ranked Lady Bears in a 71-65 loss. The loss snapped CU's seven-game winning streak, ended the Jays' 28-game home MVC winning streak and gave SMS sole possession of first place in the Valley. SMS used a 19-0 run and a seven minute scoring drought from CU to take a 36-21 lead into the half. The Lady Bears then made five of their first seven field goals in the second half, moving their lead to 20 points, up 48-28. The Jays rattled off a 25-5 run over the next eight minutes, a run which included seven three-pointers. Christy Neneman started the run with three consecutive shots from long range and Angie Janis nailed back-to-back threes after Laura Spanheimer drained one. Neneman's fourth three-pointer of the half tied the game at 53-53 with 8:11 to play. CU went 1-of-5 from long range down the stretch and couldn't take the lead. The loss was CU's 11th consecutive to a top-25 team, including an 0-4 record this year.

February 20, 2004

West Gym • Cedar Falls, Iowa

Angie Janis tied a school record by shooting a perfect 10-for-10 from the field, while leading the Bluejays with 25 points off the bench. UNI's Amy Swisher became the school's all-time leading scorer to give the Panthers a 2-0 lead, but Kristi Woodard answered with consecutive three-point field goals to give the Jays a lead they would not surrender. Janis' 10 field goals tied her career high, while her 25 points fell one point shy of her career best. Swisher finished with a game-high 29 points and 12 rebounds for the injury laden Panthers squad. Laura Spanheimer tied older sister, Krissie, for 15th on the CU career scoring chart with 1,013 points. Christy Neneman's eight points moved her into fourth place on the Bluejay career scoring list. Janis tied Jenny Olson's perfect 10-for-10 performance which occurred on Jan. 21, 1994 against Wichita State.

Bradley 64

February 22, 2004

Robertson Field House • Peoria, Ill.

Creighton won its 15th consecutive meeting with Bradley and improved to 14-1 all-time in Peoria with a come-from-behind effort. The Braves started the game on an 8-0 run and held a four-point halftime lead over the Bluejays. CU shot just 31.3 percent in the first half, while the worst shooting team in the MVC made 50 percent of its shots in the opening half. BU shot even better in the second half but continued to turn the ball over, finishing with 26 turnovers. CU had just three turnovers in the second half, as it used a late 8-0 run to overcome a 60-57 BU lead. Christy Neneman scored all 11 of her points in the final 10 minutes of the game to help lead the comeback. Angie Janis led the Jays with 16 points and seven rebounds, while swiping a career-high four steals. Kristi Woodard dished a career-best five assists while adding 12 points. Five Bluejays finished in double figures for the first time all season.

February 29, 2004

Drake Knapp Center • Des Moines, Iowa

Laura Spanheimer's career day could not help the Bluejays overcome another poor-shooting first half in a close road loss. Spanheimer tied her career-high with 24 points and knocked down a career-best six three-point field goals. CU shot 17 percent in the first half, and after holding a 13-11 lead with 9:25 to play in the first half, the Jays did not score for the remainder of the half as Drake tore off a 17-0 run. The Jays missed their last 11 shots of the half and fell behind 28-13 at the break. CU battled back to within a two-point deficit inside of 30 seconds to play, but two turnovers in the final 60 seconds cost the Jays a chance to even attempt a game-tying shot. After CU turned the ball over 16 times in the first half, the Jays had only four TOs in the second. The Jays were out-scored in the paint 37-20, including a 20-0 edge in the first half. Both teams had 24 rebounds at the half, but DU out-worked CU on the glass 25-12 in the second half. Christy Neneman played only 11 minutes due to a neck injury suffered in the game's opening minutes.

March 4, 2004

Omaha Civic Auditorium • Omaha, Neb.

Four players scored in double figures and Christy Neneman pulled down a season-high 13 rebounds as CU cruised by Evansville, 78-65. Laura Spanheimer led all players with 20 points, scoring 18 in the first half. Neneman pulled down 10 of her 13 rebounds in the first half as CU built a 42-24 halftime lead. Dayna Finch hit one of her five three-point field goals to open the game and the Bluejays never trailed. The Jays topped 70 points for the first time in seven games and had their highest offensive output since Jan. 25. CU also out-rebounded its opponent for the first time in six games, out-working one of the best rebounding teams in the MVC, 43-37 on the glass. The Jays improved to a 2-4 record when making at least 10 three-point field goals on the season.

MVC Tournament Quarterfinals

Creighton wasted a 15-point second-half lead and was crushed on the glass as the No. 7-seeded Panthers upset the Bluejays in the first game of the MVC Tournament. The Jays led 44-34 at the half and pushed their lead to 15 early in the second half, but were held scoreless over the final 5:10 of the game. Behind a standout performance from all-MVC forward Amy Swisher, UNI out-rebounded CU 47-22. Swisher alone equalled the entire CU squad with 13 defensive rebounds. Christy Neneman helped CU to its half-time lead, scoring 14 points in the first half, but did not score in the second half. Dayna Finch made her first four three-point attempts and led CU with 18 points. Swisher led everyone with 20 points and 16 rebounds as UNI became the third No. 7 seed to defeat a No. 2 seed in the MVC tourney. The rebounding deficit of 25 was CU's worst rebounding deficit since Feb. 3, 2002. Codi Walker tied a career-high with five assists and tied her season-high with 11 points.

WNIT First Round

Five Bluejays scored in double figures as the team recorded its best shooting performance in over two months to open the WNIT with a road win. Christy Neneman led CU with 16 points and Dayna Finch added 14 points for the Jays. Finch also dishd a career-high eight assists against no turnovers. Neneman tied the game at 10-10 less than four minutes into the game and the Bluejays would not trail after that. Finch hit a three-pointer and her steal and fast-break layup inside the final 50 seconds of the first half gave the Jays a 35-30 lead at the break. The Jays forced 20 turnovers for the 15th time this season and converted those into 20 points. Laura Spanheimer scored 12 points and Codi Walker's 12 points were a season-high, while Christy Erickson tied her career-high nine points. Prior to the CU win, Colorado State had never lost a WNIT game at home.

WNIT Second Round

Angie Janis logged a double-double and the Bluejays drained 8-of-9 free-throws in the final minute of the game to hold on for a thrilling WNIT win at UW. Janis registered her team-leading fifth double-double with 22 points and game-high 11 rebounds. Laura Spanheimer also pitched in with 21 points, making 5-of-10 three-point field goals. With rebounds even, field goal percentage and three-point percentage nearly identical, the difference in the game came at the foul line. The Jays made 15-of-19 free-throws, compared to 9-of-15 by the Huskies. CU led 35-33 at halftime and never trailed in the second half, despite the efforts of Pac-10 first-teamer Giuliana Mendiola. Mendiola brought UW within one-point, 70-69, with three free-throw makes with 13.7 seconds to play. But Janis and Christy Neneman both went 2-for-2 at the line in the final 12 seconds to secure the win. Neneman drained her 100th career three-pointer and Christy Erickson made her second career start.

WNIT Quarterfinals

A late 9-1 run keyed by a Laura Spanheimer putback and free-throw helped Creighton pull away from Oregon State and advance to the WNIT Final Four for the second consecutive season. Spanheimer's three-point play gave CU a 63-55 lead with 3:57 to play after the score had been tied 15 times and the lead had changed hands 10 times. The Bluejays and Beavers were tied 35-35 at halftime after CU had trailed by as many as seven in the first half. The Beavers then claimed a five-point lead early in the second half, but CU once again came from behind, paced by Dayna Finch's 22 points. The Jays held onto their lead, by going 7-of-8 from the free-throw line in the game's final minute. Finch also pulled down a career-high eight rebounds, while adding four steals. Christy Neneman added 15 points and six assists, while Spanheimer finished with 10 points and eight boards.

WNIT Semifinals

Two separate 17-4 runs and dominant performances from seniors Dayna Finch and Christy Neneman helped Creighton get deeper into postseason than any women's basketball team in school history. Finch poured in a season-high 24 points and Neneman approached a triple-double with 16 points, nine rebounds and eight assists in CU's convincing win over the Spiders. The Jays used a 12-2 run midway through the first half to extend to a comfortable lead they would hold for the remainder of the game. CU led by as many as 21 points in the game up 72-51 and all 13 healthy Bluejays saw playing time. Angie Janis added 14 points and Laura Spanheimer swiped five steals to lead all players. Finch played in her school record 120th career game, while moving to a career-high 94 three-pointers in a season. Neneman moved her season assist total to 107, a career-high.

Game 33

UNLV 52
Creighton 73

March 30, 2004

Omaha Civic Auditorium • Omaha, Neb.
WNIT Championship

Creighton dominated UNLV to claim the first national postseason title for any sport in school history. Christy Neneman scored 17 points and led the Jays with nine rebounds and three steals, to earn WNIT MVP honors. Dayna Finch went 4-of-9 from three-point range to earn all-tournament honors and Laura Spanheimer joined Finch and Neneman on the all-tournament team, leading the Jays with 20 points. CU went 8-for-8 at the free-throw line and shot 89.9 percent (71-for-79) during the WNIT. The Jays never trailed in the game, jumping out to an early 17-4 lead, and led by as many as 29 points in the second half. CU closed the season with a 12-1 home record.

28-4 Overall • 13-1 WAC (1st)

The first ever NCAA Tournament team at Creighton proved it belonged by winning its first tournament game, defeating Long Beach State in front of 3,502 fans at the Omaha Civic Auditorium. The explosive CU offense led the NCAA in both field goal (.521) and three-point field goal percentage (.452), while establishing a school-record with 80.7 points per game. Creighton Hall of Famer Kathy Halligan led five Bluejays averaging double figures with 16.0 per contest. Halligan ended her record-setting career by being named the Western Athletic Conference MVP, as CU's all-time leader with 2,159 points, 309 three-point field goals and a .454 three-point field goal percentage (including a school record .554 3FG percentage as a senior). The Jays concluded their two-year affiliation with the WAC, winning both the regular-season and tournament titles, establishing a school record 16-game winning streak (also notching a separate 12-game streak) and recording a 15-0 mark at home. Shannon Struby (first) and Melissa Sanford (second) both earned all-WAC honors, while Bruce Rasmussen was named the WAC Coach of the Year in his final year on the sidelines.

1993-94 Creighton Bluejays

24-7 Overall • 14-2 MVC (2nd)

The 1993-94 Bluejays were led by first-team all-MVC performers, sophomore Becky Flynn and senior Kris Kugel. The Jays started the season by winning 15 of their first 17 contests, including a 10-game winning streak which lasted from Dec. 30 through all of January. The Jays' 106-44 win over Delaware on Dec. 30 remains the largest margin of victory (62) in school history. Flynn registered the only triple-double in school history during the winning streak. On Jan. 11, the forward scored 13 points, grabbed 11 rebounds and registered 12 assists in a 76-54 win over Missouri. Flynn earned MVC Defensive Player of the Year honors while establishing a school record 105 steals, and Holly Sivesind was tabbed the MVC Freshman of the Year. Kugel and Jenny Olson joined Flynn in averaging double figures, while finishing one-two, respectively, in field goal percentage in the Valley. Kugel ranked sixth in the NCAA with her .632 field goal percentage. The Jays went on the road in the NCAA Tournament and defeated Bowling Green, 84-73, before ending their season with a second-round loss at Texas Tech.

2001-02 Creighton Bluejays

24-7 Overall • 16-2 MVC (1st)

The Bluejays captured their first ever Missouri Valley Conference regular-season and tournament titles, while reaching the 20-win plateau for the first-time since 1993-94. The Jays used their three-point shooting to top opponents, ranking fifth in the NCAA in three-point field goals per game (8.0) while setting a school and MVC record with 249 threes. Sophomore Dayna Finch drained 91 three-pointers, ranking ninth in the NCAA. Fellow sophomore Christy Neneman joined SMS' Jackie Stiles (1999) as the only sophomores in conference history to earn Player of the Year recognition. Neneman was also tabbed the tournament MVP after scoring 39 points against Drake in the championship game. Finch and freshman Laura Spanheimer earned honorable-mention MVC honors, while Spanheimer also appeared on the all-freshman and all-defensive teams. The Jays put together a 10-game winning streak during their 16-2 run through the MVC and finished the season by winning 10 consecutive home games (9-0 MVC). Connie Yori was named the MVC Coach of the Year in her final season with the Bluejays. The Jays traveled to State College, Pa., (Penn State) to take on No. 23 Florida International as the 12th-seed in the Mideast Region. Appearing in the first NCAA tournament game since 1994, the Jays fell to the Golden Panthers, 73-58.

1986-87 Creighton Bluejays

23-7 Overall, Independent

Competing in their final year as an independent, the 1986-87 team finally garnered national recognition with their third consecutive 20-win season earning them a national postseason tournament berth. The Jays opened the year with eight consecutive victories, including wins over Nebraska, Kansas State and Kansas. Creighton Hall of Famers Pam Gradoville and Tanya Warren led the Bluejays in scoring, with Gradoville establishing a then CU single-season record 22.0 points per game (22nd in the NCAA). Warren was named to the Kodak All-District V team, averaging 18.7 points per game and dishing out a school record 228 assists to rank 10th in the NCAA. Janet Ensign set a school record with 260 rebounds. The first postseason win in school history came on March 19, 1987, when the "Lady Jays" defeated Stephen F. Austin, 76-68, at the WNIT held in Amarillo, Texas. The Jays then lost to California in the semifinals, but bounced back to defeat Providence, 91-89 in the consolation game to finish third at the tournament.

16-14 Overall • 9-9 MVC (7th)

The Bluejays were part of a record-setting season for the Missouri Valley Conference, as the league sent six women's teams to the postseason. The Bluejays finished seventh in the regular season but helped their WNIT chances by becoming the second No. 7 seed (Wichita State, 1997) to advance to the MVC Tournament Championship game. The Jays lost to Evansville, 75-72, in overtime at the tournament and then lost at Kansas State in the WNIT to end their season. CU played four ranked opponents during the season, winning at 25th-ranked Southwest Missouri State on Jan. 2. The Jays never won more than three consecutive games all season, playing in a very balanced and competitive Valley. Taya Allen earned MVC Newcomer of the Year and honorable mention recognition, while Krissie Spanheimer joined Allen on the honorable mention team. The Jays won the InnSuites Classic in Flagstaff, Ariz., by defeating New Mexico State and Northern Arizona over Christmas break.

24-9 Overall • 13-5 MVC (T-1st)

The 2002-03 Bluejays coupled with the 2001-02 squad to become the first teams in school history to make consecutive postseason tournaments, this time advancing far into the WNIT. The Jays earned a share of the Missouri Valley Conference regular-season title with Indiana State, but lost in the semifinals of the MVC Tournament. The Jays dominated at home, going 13-0 in the regular season, but struggled to a 7-7 record on the road in regular-season play. When the Jays were sent to Maine for the first round of the WNIT, nothing indicated they'd be able to advance past the Black Bears. But after knocking off the Bears (the team with the most wins entering the WNIT), CU won at Siena with a 96-point output, and then traveled to Iowa where they defeated the Hawkeyes for the second time that season. CU's run came to an end in front of a Civic Auditorium record 4,439 fans, as the Jays lost to eventual WNIT champion Auburn. The loss ended CU's 23 game home winning streak, the second longest streak in the NCAA at the time. For the second consecutive season, the Jays set a school and MVC record for three-point field goals made with 259, ranking sixth in the NCAA with 7.8 threes per game. Christy Neneman became the third player in league history to win consecutive conference Player of the Year honors, Laura Spanheimer was honored as the MVC Defensive Player of the Year (while ranking fifth in the NCAA with a 45.8 3FG percentage) and Head Coach Jim Flanery became the winningest rookie coach in conference history.

The Bluejays tip-off against Richmond in the 2004 WNIT semi-finals. CU has gone 8-1 in the WNIT over the last two seasons.

The Bluejays at Home

Entering the 32nd season of Creighton women's basketball, the Jays have called several locations their "home court." From the early years of games at the Kiewit Fitness Center to those at the Vinardi Athletic Center to their current home at the Omaha Civic Auditorium, the Bluejays have enjoyed a great deal of success at home.

In 31 years, the Bluejays have posted a home record of 264-95 (.735), including a remarkable 36-3 (.923) over the past three seasons. This includes four undefeated seasons at home (1984-85, 1985-86, 1986-87 and 1991-92) and separate home court winning streaks of 23, 29 and 44 games.

In the 1970s, the Bluejays played their home games at the Civic Auditorium and the Kiewit Fitness Center, compiling a 30-12 mark. The Bluejays racked up 92 home victories in the 1980s, primarily playing at the Civic Auditorium and the "Old Gym." Included in those 92 home wins was a streak of 44 in a row from Feb. 4, 1984 to Feb. 24, 1987. Throughout the 1990s, the Bluejays posted a 93-35 mark (.727).

In 1992, the Bluejays hosted Long Beach State in the first round of the NCAA Tournament and defeated the 49ers, 79-66, before a crowd of 3,502 at the Civic Auditorium. With the Jays setting attendance records over the past three seasons, 12 of the top-15 attendance figures in Bluejay women's basketball history have come since 2001.

The Jays played before 4,439 fans - the largest crowd in their home history on March 31, 2003 when they played host to Auburn in the WNIT Semifinals. CU hosted three more WNIT games in 2004 and once again brought in a crowd of more than 4,000.

Since the turn of the century, the Bluejays are 50-11 (.820) at home, including one of the nation's longest home court winning streaks of 23 games from 2001 through 2003. Two consecutive 9-0 home records in MVC play helped CU post 28 consecutive home conference wins from 2001 through 2004, the second-longest such streak in MVC history.

Head Coach Jim Flanery became the winningest rookie coach in school and MVC history in 2002-03 and his 48 wins in his first two seasons tied for the best start in league history.

Directions To The Civic Auditorium

The Omaha Civic Auditorium is located at 18th and Capitol Streets in downtown Omaha, Neb.

From I-80 West: Traveling west on Interstate 80 from Des Moines, take Interstate 29 North. Get in the left lane and exit left onto Interstate 480 West into downtown Omaha to the 14th Street exit. Take the 14th Street exit to the stop sign and turn left (south). Continue south on 14th Street to Capitol Street and turn right.

From I-29 North: Traveling north on Interstate 29, take I-80 West at the convergence of the two interstates in Council Bluffs, Iowa. Follow the above directions from I-80 West.

From I-80 East: Traveling east on Interstate 80 from Lincoln, take Interstate 480 North to downtown Omaha. Continue on I-480 North to I-480 East, take the Capitol/Civic Auditorium exit. At the stop light, either turn left (19th Street) or proceed straight (Capitol Street) as the Auditorium will be visible from the exit.

From Eppley Airfield: When leaving the terminal, turn left (south) on Abbott Drive and follow toward downtown, Abbott Drive will turn into Cuming Street. Follow Cuming Street to 20th Street and turn left (south) on 20th. Turn left on Douglas Street to 18th Street and turn left on 18th.

Media and Team Parking: Media and team parking is available at the Omaha Civic Auditorium on the west side of the building on 19th Street. The lot is immediately north of the parking garage.

The Bluejays own an all-time record of 166-68 for a winning percentage of .709 at the Omaha Civic Auditorium, including a 36-3 (.923) record over the last three seasons.

Credentials

Members of the media covering Creighton women's basketball home games must contact Rob Simms to request credentials prior to the day of the game.

If time does not permit for passes to be mailed, the credentials may be picked up at the media entrance on the west side of the Omaha Civic Auditorium.

Due to space limitations, seating at courtside tables is restricted solely to working media.

CU Athletics on the Web

For all the latest information on Creighton women's basketball, or any other varsity sports, check out CU's official athletics website: www.gocreighton.com

The women's basketball pages include a numerical roster, updated statistics and results, coach and player bios, team notes, game recaps, game box scores and a photo gallery.

Game-Day Services

Media guides, updated statistics and pregame notes from both schools will be available in the media room, located at the north end of the concourse on the main level of the Civic Auditorium.

At halftime, a full NCAA box score will be available. The Creighton SID staff will bring halftime box scores to press row as soon as possible.

Following the game, a final NCAA box score, the halftime box score and a play-by-play sheet will be provided.

Interviews

During the week, all player interviews must be coordinated through the sports information office (402) 280-2433. Interviews with Head Coach Jim Flanery may be arranged by calling the basketball office at (402) 280-4741. The best time to reach Flanery is weekday mornings.

Game-day player interviews, prior to a game, are not permitted. Coaches will be available for interviews upon request on a first-come, first-served basis. Please notify the SID office at least one day in advance to make arrangements.

Following games, the Creighton locker room is closed. At home, Flanery and requested players will be available in the interview room, located at the north end of the concourse on the arena floor level. On the road, Flanery and requested players will be made available upon request.

Visiting Radio

Visiting stations interested in using existing phone lines should contact Rob Simms via e-mail. A total of four radio phone lines (two for Creighton and two for the opponent) will be available for each game. Missouri Valley Conference rules require two courtesy phone lines for the official radio station of member schools.

For non-conference opponents, the same two lines will be afforded to the team's official radio station at no charge, only if the same courtesy is reciprocated the next time the Bluejays play the same team on the road. Additional opponent radio stations (those not designated as the team's official station) wishing to broadcast a game must order their own lines.

Photo Policy

Only those accredited photographers on assignment will be issued credentials. Photographers may pick up a copy of the game rosters in the media room prior to the game. No flashes or strobes are permitted. Sidelines are to be kept clear. In accordance with NCAA rules, anyone shooting the game must also stay clear of the marked area six-feet behind each baseline.

Telephone Lines

Four phone lines in the media room will be available on a first-come, first-served basis. Only local, credit card and collect calls will be allowed.

If a media outlet wishes to have a phone installed, arrangements should be made well in advance by calling Matt Kenney at the auditorium (402) 444-3353.

Creighton Game Broadcasts

Twenty-two of 27 regular-season games are scheduled for broadcast on Spirit 88.9 FM (KVSS) during the 2004-05 season. Brad Burwell and Sara Cizek will call the action at home games, while Rob Simms will join Burwell on the road.
